COVERING THE COWBOYS

MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

The Oklahoma State athletic communications office welcomes you to another season of Cowboy wrestling. The communications staff is here to assist members of the media in their coverage of Oklahoma State athletics. Please take a moment to become familiar with the following media policies.

CREDENTIALS

Members of the media should contact Reid Romine in the Oklahoma State media relations office to request credentials to OSU wrestling duals (reid.romine@okstate.edu or 210-860-5959). Credentials can be picked up at the southeast pass gate of Gallagher-Iba Arena on match days. Credential pickup will be available one hour prior to the start of each dual and will close five minutes before the duals begins.

INTERVIEWS

Media interview requests for Oklahoma State head coach John Smith, assistant coaches and wrestlers should be directed to Reid Romine in the OSU media relations office. Coaches and wrestlers are typically available for interviews before practice starts on Wednesday (usually around 2 p.m. CT), but other arrangements can be made.

MEDIA PARKING

Members of the media attending duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena should park in the lot just south of Boone Pickens Stadium. The entrance to the lot is off Knoblock Street. No parking pass is necessary for entry into the lot.

VISITING RADIO, PHONE LINES

Phone lines will be provided to the primary radio broadcast crews for both the Cowboys and the visiting team. Additional lines are available to the media on a first-come, first-serve basis.

PHOTOS AND VIDEO

Photographers may shoot from the east and west sides of the mat, but are prohibited from shooting in front of either team's bench. Photographers and videographers must stay seated while shooting to avoid obstructing fans' views.

COWBOYS ON THE AIR

Rex Holt is in his 39th year broadcasting Oklahoma State Cowboy Wrestling. OSU wrestling can be heard on its primary home of 93.7 KSPI-FM radio in Stillwater. Occasional events are aired on 105.5 KGFY-FM radio or 780 AM radio Stillwater should programming conflicts arise. Any time the Cowboys are on the air, the live broadcast can also be accessed live on the official website of OSU athletics, www.okstate.com.

YOUNG GROUP OF COWBOYS LOOKING TO SURPASS PRESEASON EXPECTATIONS

After a disappointing end to the 2022 season as it looks to recapture its championship pedigree, the Oklahoma State wrestling team enters the 2022-23 season ranked No. 10 by the National Wrestling Coaches Association with a lot to prove.

The Cowboys began last season 10-0 and were as high as third in the rankings before injuries took a toll on the starting lineup. OSU ended the regular season with a 13-4 mark in duals before a fourth-place finish at the Big 12 Championships snapped a program record nine consecutive conference tournament titles despite having three individual conference champions. The Cowboys sent wrestlers at eight weights to the NCAA Championships in Detroit where Daton Fix and Dustin Plott earned All-America honors, while OSU finished in 14th place as a team.

This season's schedule consists of seven home matches out of 17 total duals and a trip to the Southern Scuffle to ring in the New Year. Oklahoma State will face 10 teams ranked in the NWCA preseason poll, including three of the top five teams.

The Pokes will have five contests in the fall, including the first round of Bedlam in Norman, before the turn of the calendar year. The toughest stretch of the season for OSU begins in late January as it heads to Cedar Falls and Ames on back-to-back days looking to avenge last season's losses to No. 20 Northern Iowa and No. 14 Iowa State. It doesn't get any easier from there as two top-5 teams await to open the month of February. The Cowboys will wrestle No. 5 Michigan at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, at Bout at the Ballpark before playing host to No. 3 Missouri two days later in the highest ranked home match of the season. The Cowboys will conclude the regular season with Bedlam in Stillwater on senior night and a trip to Carver-Hawkeye Arena for a bout with No. 2 Iowa.

The Big 12 Championships will once again be held at the BOK Center in Tulsa where the Pokes will look to regain their spot on top of the conference. Two weeks later OSU will return to the BOK Center and serve host to the NCAA Championships, which are being hosted in Tulsa for the first time ever. The state of Oklahoma has hosted the championships 11 times in the past, but not since Oklahoma City hosted the event in 2014.

The Oklahoma State lineup is highlighted by four wrestlers who have earned All-America honors a total of eight times. Daton Fix is a three-time All-American and NCAA finalist at 133 pounds, Wyatt Sheets and Travis Wittlake have each earned the distinction twice in 2020 and 2021, while a sixth-place finish in 2022 made Dustin Plott an All-American for the first time.

Leading the lower weights, Fix will aim to finally capture the individual national title in his hometown this season that has narrowly escaped him in his three prior trips to the NCAA Championships. He is 72-4 in his career after a 25-1 mark last season and enters his senior season as the consensus No. 2 wrestler at 133 pounds behind Penn State's Roman Bravo-Young.

Surrounding Fix, Trevor Mastrogiovanni holds down the starting position at 125 pounds for the third year in a row, while Carter Young will look to make a big jump in his second year at 141 pounds. Mastrogiovanni has qualified for the NCAA Championships in each of the past two seasons, but has failed to make the podium in both appearances. After posting a 19-5 mark as a sophomore, Mastrogiovanni enters this season in the top 10 at 125 pounds. At 141, Young held his own as an undersized true freshman in a veteran weight class with a 12-9 record a season ago. A seventh-place finish at the Big 12 Championships earned him an automatic berth to the NCAA Championships where he lost two competitive matches to All-American Grant Willits and Michigan's Stevan Micic. Dusty Hone will provide depth at the weight as he elected to return for his seventh and final season in Stillwater.

At 149 pounds, it was assumed Kaden Gfeller's college career was over after last season, but in August Gfeller elected to rejoin the Cowboys for his super senior season. In Gfeller, the Cowboys return an experienced veteran who has won Big 12 titles at the weight class in 2019 and 2022. However, head coach John Smith has said not to expect Gfeller to see the starting lineup until December while he gets back into form. In the meantime, redshirt freshman Victor Voinovich will look to stake his claim to hold on to the starting spot even with Gfeller's return. A highly-touted recruit out of Ohio, Voinovich put together an impressive 16-1 redshirt season that included a third-place finish at the Southern Scuffle.

OSU also returns super senior Wyatt Sheets for his final season at 157 pounds. Sheets was one of the Cowboys dealing with injuries late in the season, but did enough to earn an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. As the No. 31 seed, he went 1-2 at the event with close losses to No. 1 seed Ryan Deakin and No. 2 David Carr. Behind Sheets are a pair of talented freshmen in Luke Mechler and Jordan Williams, who was a top-15 recruit out of Owasso, Oklahoma.

Travis Wittlake had been a star in the Cowboy lineup at 165 pounds for three years, but bumped up to 184 pounds in the offseason where he will compete with Kyle Haas for the starting role. Haas is coming off a redshirt season in which he posted a 9-0 record with six wins coming by fall in open tournaments. The Cowboys also return Gavin Stika who serves as a quality backup at 184 and 197 pounds.

With Wittlake moving weights, the starting spot at 165 pounds is vacant with a number of Cowboys looking to grasp the role. Upperclassmen Jalin Harper, Chance McLane, Joey Sanchez and Daniel Manibog have all made starts for OSU in the past filling in for injuries and will look to finally secure a starting spot in the lineup. They will compete early in the season with redshirt freshmen Travis Mastrogiovanni and Blake Skidgel who are looking to break into the lineup for the first time.

At 174 pounds, Plott is coming off an impressive sophomore season that included a 21-4 record, his first Big 12 title and All-America finish. He enters this season ranked fourth in the nation at the weight looking to contend for a national title in Tulsa.

After spending a season at heavyweight, Luke Surber will move down to 197 pounds for his junior season. Surber had a strong end to the season that included a run to the finals of the Big 12 tournament and NCAA Championships appearance. He spent his freshman season at 197 pounds recording an 8-1 record with his lone loss coming to All-American Stephen Buchanan via injury default. With Surber dropping down a weight class, redshirt sophomore Konner Doucet will get his opportunity to start after spending the last two seasons in a backup role. A four-time Oklahoma state champion at Comanche High School, Doucet was a highly-rated recruit. He went 10-2 last season in open tournaments while redshirting with his only losses coming at the Southern Scuffle.

OKLAHOMA STATE, 1988

John Smith is a name synonymous with wrestling success.

The Oklahoma State head coach won six consecutive world championships as a competitor from 1987-92, including gold medals at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul and at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. Additionally, he owns five national championships as head coach of the Cowboys.

Recently completing his 31st year, Smith accepted the head coaching position at Oklahoma State in 1992 and the numbers and accomplishments since that time speak for themselves. He has led his alma mater to five NCAA team titles in 1994, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006, and he has coached 33 NCAA individual champions and five Olympians. Under his watch, the Cowboys have brought 21 team conference tournament championships, two Big 12 regular season titles and 129 individual conference titles back to Stillwater. He has seen his student-athletes earn All-America recognition 150 times, an average of 4.8 All-America honorees per year. Smith also has coached two Hodge Trophy recipients in Alex Dieringer and Steve Mocco.

He was recognized as the National Wrestling Coaches Association coach of the year in 1994 and 2003 and is a 15-time selection as his conference's coach of the year (1994 and 1996 in the Big Eight and 1997, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2013 2014, 2015 and 2016 in the Big 12).

The 2022 season saw Daton Fix and Dustin Plott make it to the podium at NCAA's as Smith reached 150 All-Americans coached in his career. After a 13-4 record in the regular season, a beaten up OSU team finished fourth at the Big 12 Championships as three Cowboys took home individual titles with Fix winning his third conference crown, Kaden Gfeller collecting his second at 149 pounds and Plott earning his first at 174 pounds.

In the 2021 season, the Cowboys went 10-0 in duals on the year, marking the program's 47th undefeated regular season and second in three seasons. Smith led his squad to a program record ninth consecutive Big 12 tournament title with three Cowboys claiming individual conference titles. Oklahoma State qualified eight wrestlers to the NCAA Championships in St. Louis, Missouri, with Wyatt Sheets being added to the tournament as a late addition at 157 pounds.

Entering the tournament ranked sixth in the nation, the Cowboys finished third for the 16th time with Smith at the helm. Six wrestlers earned All-America honors including national runner-up Daton Fix (133), Boo Lewallen (149), Sheets (157), Travis Wittlake (165), Dakota Geer (184) and true freshman national champion AJ Ferrari (197).

The Pokes greatly outperformed their seed at the tournament, placing 39 spots higher as a team than what was expected by their original seeds. The next highest was 18 points below OSU with 21.

In 2019, the Cowboys finished with a 15-0 dual mark. It was the first undefeated team for the Cowboys since 2005. The Pokes earned spots at nine weights for the NCAA Championships in Pittsburgh, where Nick Piccininni (125), Daton Fix (133), Dakota Geer (184), Preston Weigel (197) and Derek White (HWT) claimed All-America honors.

OSU brought home a third-place finish from the national tournament for the second time in three years and finished in the top three for the 15th time with Smith at the helm.

A native of Del City, Okla., Smith owns a 462-69-6 career dual match record as a head coach (.863 winning pct.).

Smith led OSU to four consecutive NCAA team championships from 2003 through 2006.

The 2003 squad compiled a perfect 17-0 dual meet record, won the Big 12 team title, crowned six individual Big 12 champions and featured a pair of NCAA individual champions in Johnny Thompson and Jake Rosholt.

The NCAA Champion Chris Pendleton-led squad sported a 17-2 dual meet record, won the Big 12 team title and crowned four individual Big 12 champions in 2004.

Under Smith's watch, Oklahoma State compiled a 21-0 dual meet record in 2005. That team capped the season with one of the most dominant showings in the history of the NCAA Championships when an NCAA-record five Cowboys were crowned NCAA champions. Zack Esposito won at 149 with Johny Hendricks taking the 165 championship. Pendleton repeated as an NCAA champion at 174, Jake Rosholt claimed the title at 197 and Steve Mocco won the heavyweight championship. OSU wrestlers compiled a 38-9 record at the NCAA Championships that year and the Cowboys set school records for points, margin of victory and national champions. Oklahoma State scored 153 team points to top second-place Michigan by 70 points.

Smith and the Cowboys went 16-2 in dual meets en route to claiming their fourth consecutive NCAA team title in 2006, under the leadership of Hendricks and Rosholt, who both claimed their second consecutive NCAA individual championships.

Smith won his first of five NCAA team championships in 1994 when the Cowboys compiled a 13-1 dual meet record, won the Big 8 team championship, crowned four individual Big 8 champions and three NCAA individual champions in Alan Fried, Mark Branch and Smith's younger brother and first-ever four-time NCAA champion, Pat Smith.

For all of the championships and success he continues to enjoy as a coach, it is his career as a wrestler that is the stuff of legend. Smith truly was the best wrestler in the world.

In brief, Smith compiled a 105-5 record as a high school wrestler at Del City High School in Del City, Okla., before beginning his collegiate career at Oklahoma State, where he put together a 152-8-2 record that included a pair of NCAA individual championships in 1987 and 1988. He was a three-time All-America selection in 1985, 1987 and 1988. On the international stage, Smith rolled to a 100-5 career record that included six world championships (1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991 and 1992), two Olympic gold medals (1988 and 1992), two Pan American Games gold medals (1987 and 1991) and two Goodwill Games gold medals (1986 and 1990).

To this day, Smith holds Oklahoma State school records for career victories (152), single-season victories (47 in 1988), career bonus-point wins (113), single-season bonus-point wins (39 in both 1987 and 1988) and single-season bonus point win percentage (90.7 in 1987). A three-time Big Eight Conference individual champion in 1985, 1987 and 1988, Smith wrestled primarily at 134 during his collegiate career, where he strung together a 124-4 overall record. He also competed at 126, compiling a 27-4-2 overall mark, and won his lone career match at 142.

After Smith's junior year at Oklahoma State, he won the first of his six world championships in Clermont-Ferrand, France. Smith was the only collegiate wrestler to win a world championship while still in college until 2017 when Kyle Snyder (Ohio State) claimed a title in Paris. Following his graduation in 1988, Smith qualified for the U.S. Olympic freestyle team and came away from the Seoul Olympics with the first of two Olympic gold medals and the second of six consecutive world titles.

Three more world championships ensued in 1989, 1990 and 1991 before Smith claimed the second of his Olympic gold medals at the 1992 Barcelona games to cement his legacy as one of the greatest wrestlers of all time.

His list of awards and honors received befits someone who earned the distinction of being the best wrestler on the planet. Smith was honored as the first wrestler to ever claim the James E. Sullivan Award as America's outstanding amateur athlete when he won the award in 1990. He was the first American ever chosen as the Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA) when he received the honor in 1990. In 1992, he was presented with the Amateur Athletic Foundation's World Trophy, becoming the first North American wrestler to earn the honor. A 2003 inductee into the FILA International Wrestling Hall of Fame, a distinguished member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame and a 1997 inductee into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame, Smith was recognized as one of the 100 Greatest Olympians of All Time at the 1996 Atlanta Games. That same year, Smith was inducted into the OSU Athletic Hall of Honor.

Smith was the 1991 selection as FILA's Outstanding Wrestler of the Year after earning Man of the Year honors from Amateur Wrestling News in 1988, Athlete of the Year recognition from USA Wrestling in 1989 and Sportsman of the Year honors from the U.S. Olympic Committee in 1990.

In 2004, the U.S. Olympic Committee presented Smith with the Titan Award, and the next year, he joined his brother Pat as one of 15 wrestlers named to the NCAA's 75th Anniversary Team.

The Smith family legacy is strong at Oklahoma State, as John's older brother Lee Roy was a three-time All-American in 1977, 1979 and 1980 and claimed the 1980 national championship. John was a three-time All-American in 1985, 1987 and 1988 with a pair of national titles in 1987 and 1988, while his younger brother Pat was a four-time All-American with four national championships in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994. In 2020, John's son, Joe, completed his career as a Cowboy as a three-time All-American.

Smith also successfully established a wrestling club that allows wrestlers from across the country to prepare and train for international competition. The Gator Wrestling Club sent three former Oklahoma State wrestlers to compete in the 2004 Olympic Games. Jamill Kelly won the silver medal at the 2004 Athens Olympics, with Daniel Cormier finishing fourth and Eric Guerrero also representing the USA in Athens.

In 1995, Smith married the former Toni Donaldson. The couple has three sons – Joseph, Samuel and Levi and two daughters – Isabelle and Cecilia.

Esposito starts his seventh season as the associate head coach at Oklahoma State, marking his 14th year on staff with the Cowboys.

The 2007 OSU graduate served as a club coach for the Cowboys for the 2010 and 2011 seasons, assisting with the Stillwater-based Gator Club.

In his tenure, the Pokes have captured 11 Big 12 Tournament titles and crowned an impressive 67 individual conference champions.

Esposito has assisted in coaching 65 All-Americans and 10 NCAA champions. He also helped coach Dean Heil to two individual titles in 2016 and 2017, Alex Dieringer to his three individual national championships at 157 pounds and 165 pounds, respectively, Chris Perry to two-consecutive NCAA titles in 2013 and 2014 at 174 pounds and Jordan Oliver to a 133-pound national championship (2011) and 149-pound title (2013).

Esposito has compiled an impressive coaching resume on the world stage as well. He served as a coach for the title-winning 2018 World Cup Team. In 2017, as a coach for the United States' Junior Freestyle World Team, he guided the U.S. to its first team title at the event since 1984. He has also served as a three-time coach for the U.S. Cadet World Team, including the 2016 squad which took second. In 2010, he served as a coach for the U.S. Senior World Team. Most recently, he helped coach Daton Fix to a spot on the U.S. World Team.

Esposito was a standout wrestler for the Cowboys from 2002-2006, compiling a 120-12 overall record during his time in the orange singlet.

He put together a 35-1 record en route to the NCAA 149-pound title in 2005 and has the distinction of being a starter on four Oklahoma State NCAA championship-winning teams from 2003-06.

The Cowboys also claimed team Big 12 championships all four years of his impressive career.

The Cowboy played a vital role in his team's titles, as he finished second, first and third, respectively, in his three NCAA Championship appearances. Esposito earned one runner-up finish and three straight conference titles at the Big 12 Tournament.

The Cowboy coach garnered a notable amount of experience as an international competitor, including a spot on the 2008 World Cup Team that competed in Russia.

Esposito's name can be found throughout the Cowboy record book, as his 120 career victories ties him for 10th all-time at OSU and his 32 career major decisions stands sixth on the Cowboys' all-time list.

The Three Bridges, N.J., native is married to the former Brandy Baker. The couple has two daughters, Evelyn and Goldie and a son, Rocco.

Chris Perry begins his sixth season in the role of assistant coach after stepping into the position in the summer of 2017. He served two seasons as a volunteer assistant and two seasons as a club coach for the Pokes prior to the promotion.

During his time in the coaching ranks at Oklahoma State, Perry helped guide Daton Fix to a bronze-medal finish at the 2018 Junior Worlds and a Senior World Team Spot, oversaw a pair of national championships from 141-pounder Dean Heil in 2016 and 2017 and Alex Dieringer's third NCAA Championship in 2016 at 165 pounds. Most recently, he was an integral part of Dustin Plott's Big 12 championships and sixth-place finish at NCAA's in 2022.

In 2017, Perry helped coach Heil to his second NCAA title, while seeing eight Cowboys bring home All-America honors to tie a school record and finish third at the NCAA Championships. The 2017 season also saw eight Cowboys earn Big 12 individual titles en route to a team title.

In his first season on staff, he saw Alex Dieringer earn his third NCAA individual title, Dean Heil win his first national championship and four more Cowboys earn All-America status. He played a key role in coaching seven Pokes to Big 12 titles and a team conference championship.

In 2013 and 2014, Perry, a native of Stillwater, Okla., won back-to-back NCAA titles at 174 pounds under the direction of John Smith.

Perry produced a dominant 122-11 career record with 59 bonus-point wins. He was a four-time Big 12 champion, the 2014 Big 12 Championship's Outstanding Wrestler and a three-time All-American.

Perry graduated with a degree in education in 2014.

Tyler Caldwell enters his sixth season as recruiting coordinator for the Cowboys after a successful collegiate career at Oklahoma State and Oklahoma.

Since the implementation of Caldwell's position, the Cowboys have consistently signed classes ranked in the top five, including the No. 1 recruiting class in the nation in 2020. In that class, Caldwell played a major role in bringing the No. 1 overall recruit and No. 2 pound-for-pound wrestler to Stillwater.

The Pokes have crowned one national champion who was a part of one of Caldwell's signing classes. Most recently he played a role in helping Dustin Plott to a sixth-place at the 2022 NCAA Championships.

As a collegiate wrestler, Caldwell was a two-time NCAA finalist and four-time All-American. Transferring to Stillwater from the University of Oklahoma for the 2013 season, he finished his career at 126-29 overall including a 63-9 record at OSU.

In his first season at Oklahoma State, he put together a 35-5 overall record that resulted in a Big 12 title and third-place finish at NCAA's. In 2014, Caldwell made it to the NCAA finals before losing to Penn State's David Taylor. His senior season consisted of a 28-4 record and his second consecutive individual conference championship.

After his graduation from OSU, Caldwell served as a volunteer assistant coach at West Virginia during the 2015-16 season.

Caldwell has also found success on the international stage, winning a University World Title in 2014. He also placed fourth at the U.S. Open, and finished in the top six at the World Team Trials.

A Wichita, Kan., native, Caldwell graduated from OSU in 2014.

Season Review

ADVERSITY STRIKES

INJURIES DERAILED WHAT LOOKED TO BE A PROMISING SEASON FOR OKLAHOMA STATE IN 2022

Oklahoma State was plagued by injury during the 2021-22 season that resulted in a 13-4 regular season record, followed by a fourth-place finish at the Big 12 Championships and 14th-place finish at the NCAA Championships.

The Cowboys began the season strong going 7-0 in the fall, collecting ranked wins on the road against No. 24 Stanford, No. 11 Minnesota and No. 17 Oklahoma. The lone home dual in the fall came on November 28 when the Pokes shut out Drexel, 45-0. OSU closed out the 2021 calendar year with a road trip through the Rocky Mountains that consisted of dominant wins over Air Force, Wyoming and Utah Valley. During the three-match road stint, Oklahoma State outscored its opponents 112-3, while winning 29 of the 30 individual matches and pitching shutouts against Air Force and Utah Valley.

The Cowboys continued their surge in the new year with lopsided wins over Little Rock, Columbia and No. 15 Lehigh to move to 10-0. However, the season took a turn on the night of January 24 when 2021 national champion AJ Ferrari was involved in an automobile accident that ended his season early due to injuries sustained in the crash. At the time of his injury, Ferrari was 10-0 on the season with seven bonus-point wins and was the unanimous top-ranked wrestler at 197 pounds.

Without Ferrari in the lineup and multiple other Cowboys dealing with injuries, including All-Americans Wyatt Sheets and Travis Wittlake, Oklahoma State would finish the regular season 3-4. The Cowboys suffered home losses to Northern Iowa and No. 7 Iowa State, a one-point road loss to No. 12 Missouri without 125-pounder Trevor Mastrogiovanni, and a 26-9 defeat to No. 2 Iowa at the Bout at the Ballpark in Arlington, Texas.

The Cowboys did manage to capture the 500th dual win in Gallagher-Iba Arena on February 4 in a 29-6 win over No. 23 South Dakota State. OSU closed out the regular season with wins over Bucknell and a thrilling come-from-behind victory over No. 24 Oklahoma that moved the win streak to 15 over the Sooners. The win also kept alive a 22-match home winning streak over Oklahoma that dates to Nov. 30, 1999.

Heading into the Big 12 tournament, three Cowboys received the top seed in their respective brackets. Daton Fix was the No. 1 seed at 133 pounds for the third time following a 17-0 regular season with bonus points attached in 12 of those matches. Kaden Gfeller was awarded the top seed at 149 pounds after a 14-2 dual record in which he went undefeated against conference opponents in his first year back in the OSU lineup since 2019. At 174 pounds, Dustin Plott earned the No. 1 seed with a 13-3 regular season record.

At the conference tournament, each of the top-seeded Cowboys claimed individual championships, which marked the third season in a row OSU collected three individual titles at the Big 12 Championships. Fix won the third Big 12 championship of his career and second in a row, while Kaden Gfeller won his second and Dustin Plott took down Missouri's Peyton Mocco late in the third period to clinch his first conference title at 174 pounds. Although no other team had more than one individual champion, OSU finished fourth behind Missouri, Oklahoma and Iowa State, ending a program record of nine consecutive conference tournament titles won.

Oklahoma State sent Cowboys at eight weights to the NCAA Championships in Detroit, Michigan, where they placed 14th, to mark the second lowest finish in program history. Six Cowboys received automatic bids to the tournament, while Dakota Geer and Wyatt Sheets were each at-large selections in their weight classes. Fix and Plott were the only Cowboys to earn All-America honors, which is the lowest amount since 2009.

As the sixth seed, Plott advanced to the quarterfinals in the championship bracket before getting knocked down to the wrestlebacks by No. 3 Logan Massa. He would battle from behind in the blood round against No. 7 Ethan Smith to tie the match 7-7 at the end of the third period and secure a takedown shortly after in sudden victory that earned him a spot on the podium for the first time in his career with a sixth-place finish.

Fix rolled into the championship match with four wins, including a first period fall over Chris Cannon in the quarterfinals for the second year in-a-row and a 5-1 decision over No. 3 Michael McGee in the semifinals. He would meet No. 1 Roman Bravo-Young in a rematch of last season's championship bout that Bravo-Young won 4-2 in sudden victory. Although Fix was the aggressor in the match, Bravo-Young scored the only takedown of the bout that led him to a 3-2 victory. It's the third time Fix has finished runner-up at the NCAA Championships as three of his four career losses have come in the NCAA finals.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 6	29
STANFORD NO. 24	7

STANFORD, Calif. – The sixth-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 24 Stanford, 29-7, in its first match of the season on Saturday.

The win marks John Smith's 450th dual win as head coach of the Cowboys. He is in third place on the list of all-time Division 1 wrestling coaching wins, needing 43 more to pass Harold Nichols and move into second place.

The Cowboys started off strong, building a 10-0 lead through the first three matches. No. 19 Trevor Mastrogiovanni began his sophomore campaign with a 5-2 decision over Logan Ashton, while No. 2 Daton Fix won a 7-3 decision against Jackson DiSario. Dusty Hone secured Oklahoma State's first bonus-point win of the season with a 9-0 major decision at 141 pounds.

No. 14 Wyatt Sheets picked up his first win of the season in a 6-3 decision over Charles Darracott to get the Cowboys back in the win column after No. 7 Jaden Abas picked up a major decision over Kaden Gfeller at 149 pounds. The only other match Stanford won was a 4-0 decision at 165 pounds for the reigning national champion at 165 pounds, Shane Griffith over No. 6 Travis Wittlake.

OSU closed out the dual with four consecutive wins at the upper weights to widen the gap and seal the victory over the Cardinal. Dustin Plott held off a late surge by Tyler Eischens for a 7-6 decision before two-consecutive bonus-point wins came at the hands of Dakota Geer and AJ Ferrari.

Geer picked up where he left off last season when he led the team in bonus-point wins. He attacked early and often in his bout with Ethan Woods and collected a 22-7 technical fall in 6:21. As for Ferrari, he began his title defense with a 16-3 major decision over No. 25 Nick Stemmet.

The final match of the day marked the first dual win for Luke Surber. A sophomore from Tuttle, Oklahoma, Surber bumped up a weight class in the offseason to compete for the job at heavyweight. He was dominant as he closed out the dual with a 14-3 major decision and the third bonus-point victory in a row for the Cowboys.

"It was pretty good," Surber said. "I can build off of it with a lot more fakes and shots and stuff to push the pace more, especially at heavyweight. I think I can use that to my advantage with my speed and athleticism. Overall, I think it was a good performance."

DUAL 2

Nov. 20, 2021 | Minneapolis, Minn.
Maturi Pavilion

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 6	23
MINNESOTA NO. 11	10

MINNEAPOLIS – The Oklahoma State wrestling team improved to 2-0 on the season with a 23-10 victory on the road at No. 11 Minnesota that saw six Cowboys defeat ranked Golden Gophers.

"I thought we looked good at several weight classes," head coach John Smith said. "Our theme this week was to get better, but we didn't get better at some weight classes. We didn't have much killer instinct in us and didn't want to finish some matches off. It's early and hopefully we will improve from this match as we move onto Drexel next weekend."

The sixth-ranked Cowboys got off to a quick start when sophomore Trevor Mastrogiovanni upset No. 5 Patrick McKee, who was an All-American last season. Mastrogiovanni held a 4-3 after the first period, and separated the score in the second with an escape and pair of takedowns to extend his lead to 9-4. He finished off a 10-6 decision to put the Cowboys up 3-0.

"He had a really good effort," Smith said. "There was a lot of confidence in his performance and those takedowns were big and critical. He picked him up when he was in on legs and he did a nice job finishing his shots, which made a difference in the outcome."

Daton Fix moved to 2-0 on the season with an 18-7 major decision over No. 33 Jake Gliva. Dustin Plott, Dakota Geer and AJ Ferrari each moved their record to 2-0, as well, with wins today.

Ranked 15th in the nation, Plott took down No. 23 Jared Krattiger with a convincing 6-1 decision. At 184, Geer clinched the victory for OSU with a takedown in sudden victory. Geer and No. 21 Isaiah Salazar, who was 4-0 on the season, ended regulation at a 1-1 tie before Geer sealed his second victory of the season in the first sudden victory period. Ferrari got off to a fast start in his match with Michial Foy as he led 4-1 after one period. He doubled his lead in the second period and used a takedown with three seconds remaining to collect his second major decision in as many matches.

No. 22 Kaden Gfeller and No. 6 Travis Wittlake earned their first wins of the season after dropping bouts to top-10 opponents at Stanford. Down 2-0 after the first period, Gfeller took control of the match in the second period with an escape, takedown and four-point turn. He finished off No. 26 Michael Blockhus by a score of 10-3, while Wittlake defeated No. 21 Andrew Sparks, 8-3.

The Cowboys took seven of 10 matches in the duals with the losses coming at 141, 157 and heavyweight. At 141, true freshman Carter Young dropped his dual debut to Jake Bergeland by a score of 6-4, while Wyatt Sheets dropped his match with No. 5 Brayton Lee, 15-9. Luke Surber had the daunting task of facing top-ranked heavyweight and Olympic champion, Gable Steveson, who collected a 20-7 major decision.

2021-22 DUAL RESULTS

DUAL 3

Nov. 28, 2021 | Stillwater, Okla.
Gallagher-Iba Arena

DREXEL	0
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 6	45

STILLWATER – The No. 5 Oklahoma State wrestling team shutout Drexel, 45-0, in its first dual in Gallagher-Iba Arena this season.

It was the first shutout for the Cowboys since they beat Little Rock by the same score on February 7, 2021.

Coming into the dual, the match of the day was projected to be at 174 pounds where No. 16 Dustin Plott and No. 12 Mickey O'Malley would square off. Plott got the better of O'Malley as he jumped out to a 3-1 lead in the second after a scoreless first period. He matched two escapes from O'Malley with a takedown in the third to win a 6-3 decision. After handing No. 12 O'Malley his first loss of the season, Plott has now started his sophomore season with three wins in a row over ranked opponents.

"I thought that 174-pound match, that was kind of the key match," head coach John Smith said. "Seeing Dustin as we saw him last year struggle with those injuries all year, just seeing him actually execute was good. [It] looked like his wind was underneath him and he didn't seem to get too emotional out there. His opponent was a little bit dangerous in his tie-ups and Dustin did a good job of staying clear of him and when he went to the single legs, he did a nice job of finishing. You like the fact that last year it was a struggle for him to finish any match because of a lot of reasons. Having a fresh start to the season with energy and a new shot at it, I thought we saw that tonight. That was a good win for him."

Eight Cowboys collected bonus-point wins in their matches with two being falls, three technical falls and three major decisions.

After Trevor Mastrogiovanni put OSU up 3-0 with a 6-3 decision, Daton Fix (133) earned the 50th win of his career by pinning Deon Pleasant in the second period. Working on a technical fall, Fix had a four-point near fall secured, but finished the fall, which was the ninth of his career. Kaden Gfeller followed Fix's footsteps at 149 pounds by pinning Tyler Williams in 3:20. Gfeller chose to start the second period in the down position with a 4-3 lead and rolled through for a reversal of Williams before catching him on his back for the fall.

"It was awesome," Fix said. "I was one of the first ones as soon as I saw him eventually get the reversal, I knew that he was in a good position to get the fall. He's struggled in the past but seeing him come back into [Gallagher-Iba Arena] and get a fall like that, that's super important for him and his confidence going forward. Coach, he's always going to be pretty hard on him, but it's important that he has matches like that where he can look back and say, 'I did a good job and I put points on the board for the team.'"

Three Cowboys collected their first bonus-point wins of the season by way of major decisions in Carter Young (141), Wyatt Sheets (157) and Travis Wittlake (165). Sandwiched between the falls from Fix and Gfeller, Young won the first match of his Oklahoma State career racking up eight takedowns, an escape and riding time point en route to an 18-6 major. Sheets nearly had the third fall of the day for OSU but ran out of time in the third period and settled for an 8-0 major decision over No. 32 Parker Kropman. Wittlake exploded offensively in the third period to turn in back-to-back major decisions with his 13-3 victory.

The upper weights for the Cowboys put together back-to-back-to-back technical falls at 184, 197 and heavyweight, outscoring their opponents 60-15 in those matches. Dakota Geer picked up his second tech fall of the season with a 24-9 victory over Bryan McLaughlin at 184 pounds, while top-ranked AJ Ferrari (197) defeated Tino Morina 17-2, ending the match in the second period at 5:00. Heavyweight Luke Surber collected his first dual win in Gallagher-Iba Arena with a 19-4 technical fall over Eli Anthony in 5:25.

DUAL 4

Dec. 12, 2021 | Norman, Okla.
Lloyd Noble Center

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 4	31
OKLAHOMA NO. 17	3

Norman, Okla. – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 17 Oklahoma, 31-3, in Norman at the Lloyd Noble Center on Sunday night.

"Overall, I thought we wrestled well," head coach John Smith said. "We won the tight matches and won some matches we have struggled with in the past. I think the difference in the match was the takedown ratio we had compared to them."

The Cowboys took nine of 10 matches from the Sooners, including ranked wins at 157, 165, 184, 197, 125 and 133.

Kaden Gfeller set the tone for the dual in the first match at 149 pounds. Gfeller was in control of Oklahoma's Dom Demas, who is a former All-American at 141 pounds for the Sooners. Tied at 2 going into the third period, Gfeller outscore Demas 7-1 in the final period to secure a 9-3 decision.

"I didn't know what to expect," Gfeller said. "I just wanted to wrestle my match and wrestle hard and push the pace on him to see if he could go. I took it personal that they flipped and wanted to start at 149 because they thought those one-hour weigh-ins would give me trouble. I was excited about that match."

Following Gfeller, Wyatt Sheets won a sudden victory decision over No. 15 Justin Thomas at 157 pounds to put the Cowboys up 6-0 in the team score. Sheets improves to 3-1 on the season after defeating ranked opponents in back-to-back matches against Drexel and OU. Travis Wittlake (165) was solid in his match against No. 29 Joe Grello as he won with an 8-4 decision.

Between 174-197, each of the Cowboys moved to 4-0 on the season as they helped the Cowboys build up a 19-0 lead through six matches. Dustin Plott continued his strong start to the season as he picked up a 10-2 major decision over Anthony Mantanona at 174. Dakota Geer (184) defeated No. 18 Darrien Roberts, 8-2, while top-ranked AJ Ferrari defeated No. 11 Jake Woodley for the fourth time in his career by a score of 6-3.

The Sooners got on the board when Josh Heindselman took down Luke Surber in sudden victory.

After that, it was much of the same story for Oklahoma State as No. 12 Trevor Mastrogiovanni remained undefeated with a 6-4 decision against No. 21 Joey Prata. Mastrogiovanni used a late takedown in the third period to seal the victory after being tied 4-4 with under a minute to go in the match.

At 133 pounds, Daton Fix collected his second fall and third bonus-point win of the season against No. 19 Tony Madrigal. Up big in the third period, Fix had a technical fall secured but ended up pinning Madrigal in 6:20. True freshman Carter Young wrapped up the night winning his first Bedlam match of his career. The Stillwater native defeated OU's Jacob Butler 9-4.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 4	45
AIR FORCE	0

LARAMIE, Wyo. – The No. 4 Oklahoma State wrestling team collected two Big 12 dual wins on the road on Friday. The Cowboys started the day in Colorado Springs with a 45-0 shutout of Air Force before they traveled north and defeated Wyoming, 30-3.

Beginning with the Falcons, OSU notched a bonus-point win in nine of the 10 weight classes. The Cowboys combined for five major decisions, two technical falls and two pins.

At 133 pounds, Daton Fix won via fall for the third match in a row, pinning Sidney Flores in 3:58. Sophomore heavyweight Luke Surber ended the dual with a fall of his own as he locked up a cradle on Cole Forrester in 3:42.

Beginning at 149 pounds, the Cowboys collected major decisions in four straight matches from Kaden Gfeller, Wyatt Sheets, Travis Wittlake and Dustin Plott. Trevor Mastrogiovanni also started off the dual with a 12-2 major decision over Quinn Melofchik at 125 pounds.

Dakota Geer and AJ Ferrari each picked up technical falls against the Falcons. Geer (184) used a turn as the last seconds ticked off the clock to secure a 21-5 tech fall over Jake Thompson, which was his third technical fall of the season. Ferrari's match against Kayne Hutchinson ended at 5:54 with a score of 19-4. The win marked Ferrari's fourth bonus-point win on the season, which is tied with Fix for the team lead, and his second technical fall of the season.

Carter Young defeated Cody Phippen, 3-1, before claiming a 15-6 major decision to start the dual against Chase Zollman of Wyoming.

Oklahoma State took nine matches against the Cowboys of Wyoming. Three Cowboys won ranked matchups against their Wyoming foes.

Following Young, Kaden Gfeller battled back from an early deficit to earn a 10-5 decision over Jaron Jensen. Wyatt Sheets and Jacob Wright put together a wild match at 157 pounds as the two finished regulation at 1-1 before ana action-packed sudden victory period that resulted in no points. In the first tiebreaker, Sheets started on bottom and escaped in five seconds before riding Wright in his turn on bottom to claim a 2-1 decision.

At 165 pounds, Travis Wittlake collected his second major decision of the day in a 10-2 victory over Cooper Voorhees. Dustin Plott improved to 6-0 on the season with four wins over ranked opponents after taking down No. 12 Hayden Hastings, 7-2. In the marquee matchup of the night, AJ Ferrari defended his top ranking defeating No. 5 Stephen Buchanan, 4-2 in a competitive match.

OSU finished strong with Luke Surber winning a 12-5 decision over Terren Swartz and Trevor Mastrogiovanni getting a takedown in the third sudden victory match of the night that gave him a 7-5 victory over Jake Svihel. No. 2 Daton Fix closed out the night with a 10-1 major decision over Job Greenwood.

LARAMIE, Wyo. – The No. 4 Oklahoma State wrestling team collected two Big 12 dual wins on the road on Friday. The Cowboys started the day in Colorado Springs with a 45-0 shutout of Air Force before they traveled north and defeated Wyoming, 30-3.

Beginning with the Falcons, OSU notched a bonus-point win in nine of the 10 weight classes. The Cowboys combined for five major decisions, two technical falls and two pins.

At 133 pounds, Daton Fix won via fall for the third match in a row, pinning Sidney Flores in 3:58. Sophomore heavyweight Luke Surber ended the dual with a fall of his own as he locked up a cradle on Cole Forrester in 3:42.

Beginning at 149 pounds, the Cowboys collected major decisions in four straight matches from Kaden Gfeller, Wyatt Sheets, Travis Wittlake and Dustin Plott. Trevor Mastrogiovanni also started off the dual with a 12-2 major decision over Quinn Melofchik at 125 pounds.

Dakota Geer and AJ Ferrari each picked up technical falls against the Falcons. Geer (184) used a turn as the last seconds ticked off the clock to secure a 21-5 tech fall over Jake Thompson, which was his third technical fall of the season. Ferrari's match against Kayne Hutchinson ended at 5:54 with a score of 19-4. The win marked Ferrari's fourth bonus-point win on the season, which is tied with Fix for the team lead, and his second technical fall of the season.

Carter Young defeated Cody Phippen, 3-1, before claiming a 15-6 major decision to start the dual against Chase Zollman of Wyoming.

UTAH VALLEY	0

OREM, Utah – The No. 4 Oklahoma State wrestling team improved to 7-0 on the season and 4-0 in Big 12 matches, defeating Utah Valley, 37-0, in the first ever dual meeting between the programs.

OSU capped off a three-match road trip that began on Friday with wins against Air Force and Wyoming. The Cowboys outscored their opponents by a combined score of 112-3 in those matches, which included two shutouts.

The Cowboys separated the score at the middle weights beginning at 149 pounds with a fall from Kaden Gfeller. Leading 2-0 after the first period, Gfeller began in the down position, quickly reversing James Emmer and eventually pinning him at 3:34. No. 14 Wyatt Sheets followed at 157 pounds with a bonus-point win of his own in a 14-1 major decision over Jaxon Garoutte. At 165 pounds, Travis Wittlake picked up his third major decision of the weekend with a 12-3 victory over Danny Snediker.

Four Cowboys improved to 7-0 on the season as No. 12 Trevor Mastrogiovanni (125) and No. 10 Dustin Plott (174) each picked up wins over unranked Wolverines. At 133 pounds, Daton Fix collected an 8-3 decision over No. 20 Haiden Drury, while top-ranked AJ Ferrari defeated No. 23 Evan Bockman, 6-3, at 197 pounds.

A native of Cedar City, Utah, senior Dusty Hone got the start for OSU at 141 pounds after Carter Young had started the previous five duals. After riding Ty Smith the entire second period, Hone used a late reversal in the third and a riding time point to secure a 3-0 decision.

No. 7 Dakota Geer earned his team-leading fourth technical fall of the season against Hunter Morse. With a 15-2 lead at the beginning of the third period, Geer got a quick takedown to make it 17-2 and end the bout at 5:14. Heavyweight Luke Surber won his third match of the road trip defeating Jayden Woodruff, 8-7.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 4	35
LITTLE ROCK	6

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – The No. 4 Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated the Trojans of Little Rock, 35-6, in their first dual of 2022.The Cowboys improved to 8-0 this season with seven wins on the road.

The Pokes dominated in front of a wrestling attendance record of 1,524 in the Jack Stephens Center, winning eight of 10 bouts. Six Cowboys earned bonus-point victories on the night by way of a fall, three technical falls and two major decisions.

Oklahoma State's top ranked 197-pounder AJ Ferrari claimed the second fall of his career as he pinned Brooks Sacharczyk in 2:39. It marks the first fall of the season for Ferrari and fifth bonus-point victory of the season as he moves to 8-0.

Daton Fix, Wyatt Sheets and Dakota Geer each picked up technical falls over their Trojan opponents. Fix, the second-ranked wrestler at 133 pounds, moved to 8-0 on the season with a 17-2 victory over Jaylen Carson that ended early into the third period. At 157 pounds, Sheets put up 15 straight points after a scoreless first period to earn a 15-0 tech fall over Austin Keal. Geer (184) worked quickly in his match against Tanner Mendoza as the senior put up 18 points in the first period en route to an 18-0 tech fall, which was his team-leading fifth of the season.

Carter Young (141) improved his record to 5-1 in his true freshman season with a 14-4 major decision over Conner Ward. It's the second major in a row for No. 20 Young after defeating Wyoming's Chase Zollman, 15-6 on December 17. Heavyweight Luke Surber was the other Cowboy with a major decision victory as he took care of Josiah Hill by a score of 10-2.

125-pounder Trevor Mastorgiovanni moved to 8-0 on the season as he opened the dual with an 8-3 decision over Jayden Carson, while No. 5 Travis Wittlake (165) was attempting to score bonus points but gave up a late takedown, forcing him to settle with a 9-4 decision over Tyler Brennan.

Two OSU starters were missing from the lineup in Little Rock as Kaden Gfeller and Dustin Plott were unavailable. Indiana transfer Joey Sanchez took the place of Gfeller at 149 pounds and was defeated by Joseph Bianchi 5-0. At 174 pounds, Jalin Harper, who usually wrestles at 157 pounds, bumped up two weight classes to face Little Rock's Triston Wills, who took the bout, 7-1.

COLUMBIA	6
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 4	35

STILLWATER – The fourth-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team took down Columbia, 35-6, in Gallagher-Iba Arena on Sunday afternoon in a match that was originally scheduled to take place in Morgantown, W.V.

The Cowboys took eight of the 10 matches in the dual, with six Cowboys earning bonus-point wins by way of three major decisions, a technical fall and two pins.

"I thought the effort was good. I didn't think we wrestled great," head coach John Smith said. "I thought (Trevor) Mastrogiovanni did a really good job of separating the score against a guy. Kind of sending a message out there that if you're ranked No. 20 in the country, then you're not wrestling with me. Maybe a little bit of a slow start with the takedown coming late in the first period and then I think he realized he could take him down and ended up getting a takedown in each period. That's big."

The Cowboys started quickly with major decisions from Mastrogiovanni and Daton Fix. No. 6 Mastrogiovanni picked up an 8-0 major decision over No. 20 Joe Manchio at 125 pounds and move to 9-0 in his sophomore season. Second-ranked Daton Fix (133) was dominant in his match against Angelo Rini as he picked up his seventh bonus-point victory of the season in the 13-4 major decision.

Kaden Gfeller returned to the OSU lineup after missing last weekend's match against Little Rock due to illness. Gfeller finished off a 17-2 technical fall over Danny Fongaro in the third period with a two-point turn and riding time point that ended the match early. Since dropping his first match of the season to All-American Jaden Abas, Gfeller has rattled off seven straight wins.

Beginning at 184 pounds with Dakota Geer, the Cowboys closed out the dual with a bonus-point win in each of the final three bouts. Geer claimed a 17-3 major decision over Brian Bonino with five takedowns in the match. Leading 13-2 in the third period, AJ Ferrari pinned Columbia's Sam Wustefeld for his second fall in as many matches. The top-ranked 197-pounder in the nation improved his record to 9-0 with two falls, two tech falls and two major decisions. There wasn't much time between falls for the Cowboys as Luke Surber made quick work of Jalen Stephens with a fall of his own 58 seconds into the first period.

Wyatt Sheets (157) and Dustin Plott (174) each picked up decisions of their own in close matches. Leading 7-5, Sheets rode Andrew Garr for the entire third period to seal an 8-5 decision, while Plott had a late takedown to clinch a 4-3 decision in his return to the mat after missing the Little Rock dual.

Columbia took bouts at 141 and 165. No. 19 Matt Kazimir defeated No. 18 Carter Young in a 6-1 match as he held Young without a takedown in the match. At 165 pounds, Jalin Harper filled in for Travis Wittlake this week after bumping up to 174 pounds in place of Plott in Little Rock. Usually a 157-pounder, Harper gave No. 22 Josh Ogunsanya a competitive match, but ultimately dropped a 5-2 decision.

LEHIGH NO. 15	9
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 4	26

STILLWATER – The fourth-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team improved its record to 10-0 on the season in a 26-9 victory over No. 15 Lehigh behind an early fall from Daton Fix.

The second-ranked 133-pounder in the nation took down Lehigh's Malyke Hines in the first period and eventually turned him to his back where he pinned Hines in 1:34. It marked the second time in his career Fix has pinned Hines, who is ranked No. 18 in the country. Fix also pinned him at the NCAA Championships last March. It also marks the fastest fall of Fix's career as he is now up to four falls on the season and 12 in his three seasons at OSU.

"(Hines) is a good competitor," Fix said. "We wrestled at nationals too and had a close first period. I knew going into the match that I needed to be intense. I had the opportunity to get him on his back and once I got him there, I really wanted to get the fall."

Trevor Mastrogiovanni began the dual for the Cowboys with his second consecutive win over a ranked wrestler. Ranked No. 6 at 125 pounds, Mastrogiovanni used takedowns in the first and third period on his way to a 5-1 decision over No. 20 Jaret Lane.

"I thought we wrestled good at 125, taking a takedown in the first and getting an important takedown in the third period," head coach John Smith said. "I thought Fix looked like Fix against a pretty competitive kid. A kid that can wrestle."

Dakota Geer and AJ Ferrari each picked up major decisions in their matches, extending their streaks of bonus-point victories. At 184 pounds, Geer poured it on offensively with 10 takedowns in his 23-10 major decision over AJ Burkhart, which marked his fourth-straight bonus-point win. Ferrari made it three matches in-a-row with bonus points with a 12-2 major decision over JT Davis at 197 pounds.

Carter Young bounced back from a loss last week in a 5-4 decision over Connor McGonagle. Tied at 3 heading into the third period, Young scored a takedown with 47 seconds left and rode out McGonagle the remainder of the period to eliminate the riding time point and seal the victory. Kaden Gfeller (149) and Dustin Plott (174) each picked up decisions of their own. Gfeller moved to 8-1 on the season with a 5-1 decision over Paul Watkins, while Plott improved to 9-0 with a 5-3 win over Jake Logan.

No. 13 Wyatt Sheets suffered his second loss of the season to a top-10 opponent in a 7-3 loss to No. 8 Josh Humphreys at 157 pounds. Jalin Harper started in place of Travis Wittlake at 165 pounds for the second straight dual, dropping his bout with No. 24 Brian Meyer, while Luke Surber suffered a 6-0 defeat to No. 7 Jordan Wood at heavyweight.

NORTHERN IOWA	19
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 3	15

STILLWATER – The fourth-longest home winning streak in Oklahoma State wrestling history came to an end Saturday night as the Cowboys fell just short in their comeback bid in the 19-15 loss to Northern Iowa. OSU had won 26 consecutive matches in Gallagher-Iba Arena since their last loss at home on Jan. 27, 2018.

With the Cowboys trailing 16-12 with two bouts remaining, redshirt junior Gavin Stika made his dual debut for Oklahoma State at 197 pounds in place of top-ranked AJ Ferrari, who was unavailable. Coming into the match, Stika was 11-3 on the season having wrestled in open tournaments at 184 pounds. Stika opened the scoring in the second period with an escape and takedown after a scoreless opening period. A third period ride out from Stika resulted in a 4-1 decision over John Gunderson that gave OSU a chance to win the dual at heavyweight.

"It was a nice win for him," head coach John Smith said. "He hasn't had the chance this year to start, and he did a nice job. He stayed in a good position. He probably gave up a little bit of size, but in the end, just a good effort from the standpoint of riding, breaking the guy down and finishing his shot."

The dual meet came down to the heavyweight match between No. 29 Luke Surber and UNI's Tyrell Gordon, with the Pokes trailing by one point in the team score. An escape in the third period was the difference in the match as Surber could not finish on a shot late in the bout. Gordon collected the riding time point with 1:56 and the 2-0 decision, sealing the win for the Panthers.

Despite the heartbreaking finish, Oklahoma State got out to a 12-0 lead with wins over ranked opponents in the first four matches of the contest. No. 6 Trevor Mastrogiovanni remained undefeated on the season with a takedown in sudden victory for a 7-5 win over No. 13 Brody Teske, while Daton Fix, Carter Young and Kaden Gfeller each claimed decisions of their own at 133, 141 and 149 pounds.

The Panthers won their first match at 157 pounds where Derek Holschlag upset No. 13 Wyatt Sheets, 3-2. OSU dropped four straight bouts from 157 pounds to 184 pounds, which included a pin at 174 pounds and a major decision from fourth-ranked Parker Keckeisen over No. 9 Dakota Geer at 184.

Oklahoma State will still have a chance to claim win No. 500 in Gallagher-Iba Arena this weekend against No. 7 Iowa State tomorrow at 2 p.m. CT.

"We need this. We need a quick turnaround, and we need to wrestle," Smith said. " It was a poor effort on our part. Even some of the matches that we did win, I felt like it wasn't enough for sure."

DUAL 12

Jan. 30, 2022 | Stillwater, Okla.

IOWA STATE NO. 7	20
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 3	12

STILLWATER - The third-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team dropped the second of its two duals this weekend, 20-12, to No. 7 Iowa State. It marks the first time the Cowboys have dropped a dual to the Cyclones since Jan. 24, 2010.

"We need to recognize that we have a young group out there, so we need some experience," head coach John Smith said. "We need to be embarrassed a little bit. Hopefully, we grow from these two matches, and we move forward. I believe that will probably happen for us. It's not given; it's going to have to take some work."

Dustin Plott gave the Cowboys their first lead of the dual at 174 pounds after the teams had traded victories in the six matches prior. A 6-1 decision over No. 18 Joel Devine improved the sophomore's record to 9-1 on the season with five ranked wins.

That was the last time the Pokes would see the lead as the 12-10 advantage diminished with the Cyclones winning each of the last three bouts. Dakota Geer and Luke Surber lost to higher-ranked counterparts by decision, while Gavin Stika gave up a major decision to No. 16 Yonger Bastida at 197 pounds.

In the earlier matches, Daton Fix and Kaden Gfeller picked up their second ranked wins of the weekend, while Travis Wittlake bounced back from last night's loss. Fix took down No. 33 Ramazan Attasauov with a 5-1 decision, while Gfeller won a hard-fought match with No. 21 Jarrett Degen, 6-4, in sudden victory. Gfeller took an early lead with a takedown in the first after another one was rewarded but overturned after the Iowa State bench challenged the ruling. Degen came back strong late in the third period to tie the bout at 4 before the two-minute sudden victory period where Gfeller would eventually work for the takedown and secure the win.

"I pointed at my heart because it took heart in that match, specifically," Gfeller said. "With everything I've been through in the last couple years, that was a cool moment for me to come back and beat a wrestler like that in Gallagher."

Trevor Mastrogiovanni suffered his first loss of the season in a 2-1 decision to No. 19 Kysen Terukina to open the match. Carter Young and Wyatt Sheets each dropped their matches against Iowa State's Ian Parker and top-ranked David Carr, respectively.

"There's a ton of opportunities to get better now," Fix said. "I think we can look at this two ways: we dwell on it and go backward from here or use it as motivation to help us jump levels. This is the perfect time to jump levels heading right into the postseason."

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE NO. 23	6
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 10	29

STILLWATER - The Oklahoma State wrestling team added another piece of history to Gallagher-Iba Arena as the Pokes collected dual win No. 500 in the building in a 29-6 victory over No. 23 South Dakota State on Friday night.

"I'm glad this team got to be a part of that," head coach John Smith said. "Five hundred victories for a program just at home is quite an accomplishment. I'm excited to be a part of it. It tells you a little bit about the legacy of Oklahoma State wrestling. A lot of wins."

Named Gallagher Hall at the time, the Cowboys collected an 18-6 win over Indiana on Feb. 3, 1939, for the building's first dual win. Over the span of nearly 83 years, to the day, the Cowboys have now reached 500 wins in the historic arena.

No. 10 Oklahoma State handled the Jackrabbits all night as eight Cowboys won their bouts, which included three bonus-point victories and two ranked upsets.

At 133 pounds, Daton Fix picked up his fifth fall of the season when he took down Gabriel Tagg and stuck him on his back on the edge of the mat in the third period. Wyatt Sheets rebounded after three consecutive losses with a 10-1 major decision over Kenny O'Neil at 157 pounds, while Dakota Geer scored seven takedowns in a 16-7 major over No. 33 Cade King. It marked the third major decision of the season for Geer and No. 30 of his career.

Dustin Plott faced the highest-ranked South Dakota State wrestler and picked up his sixth win of the season in a 5-3 decision over No. 9 Cade DeVos in a top-10 matchup. At heavyweight, Luke Surber, ranked No. 33 in the weight class, held on to defeat No. 22 A.J. Nevills in a 5-3 bout. The win marked Surber's first career win over a ranked opponent.

"That's what it's going to take for Surber," Smith said. "You're a young guy who's wrestling at a weight class that you've never wrestled at weighing 220 and these guys are weighing 245 to 255. You're going to have to compete at all times. In the end, he needed a win and he needed to have had to work to get that win. From riding to finishing his takedowns, it's good to see him have success."

No. 8 Trevor Mastrogiovanni moved his record to 12-1 with a 2-1 decision over Tanner Jordan to open the match. Kaden Gfeller won his 11th straight match with a 4-0 decision over Daniel Kimball at 149 pounds, while Travis Wittlake defeated No. 30 Tanner Cook, 3-1.

Carter Young and Gavin Stika dropped close bouts to ranked Jackrabbits. Young gave up a late takedown with the match tied at one as No. 13 Clay Carlson took the match, 3-1. Stika, making his third start at 197 pounds, pushed No. 12 Tanner Sloan to the brink, but was taken down in the third period in a 3-1 loss of his own.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 10	20
MISSOURI NO. 12	21

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team got out to an early lead in its dual against No. 12 Missouri, but couldn't hold on as the Tigers rallied for a 21-20 victory and claimed their first win in the series since 2018.

OSU won the first three bouts of the match, which included a fall from Kaden Gfeller to put the Cowboys up 9-0 after Carter Young opened the dual with a 7-4 decision. Facing No. 23 Josh Edmond, Gfeller led 3-2 after the opening period where he scored a takedown, was reversed, and then escaped from Edmond. Gfeller added another takedown in the second before turning Edmond and pinning him with nine seconds left to go in the period.

Wyatt Sheets picked up his second win of the weekend with a 2-1 decision over No. 21 Jarrett Jacques. Leading 1-0 after the second period, Sheets rode Jacques the entire third period, trading a stalling point for the riding time point to secure the victory.

The Tigers won five of the next six matches to take the lead as Dakota Geer's 2-0 decision over No. 24 Jeremiah Kent at 184 pounds was the only victory for the Cowboys during that span. Travis Wittlake, Dustin Plott and Gavin Stika each dropped decisions, while Luke Surber and Alexander Yokubaitis were pinned in back-to-back matches. Yokubaitis filled in for eighth-ranked Trevor Mastrogiovanni who was unavailable at 125 pounds, which left OSU without two starters as A.J. Ferrari remains out due to injury.

Trailing by six in the team score, No. 2 Daton Fix took the mat needing a pin to tie the dual and take it to criteria to decide the winner. Fix totaled nine takedowns in his bout resulting in a 22-5 technical fall, but leaving the Cowboys a point short.

IOWA NO. 2	23
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 12	9

ARLINGTON, Texas - The Oklahoma State wrestling team fell to No. 2 Iowa, 23-9, Saturday night in the "Bout at the Ballpark" at Globe Life Field.

The historic event matched international competition with collegiate competition for the first time, as the senior men and women of Team USA took on teams of international all-stars before the Cowboys faced the Hawkeyes. It also marked just the second time a collegiate wrestling dual has been hosted in Major League Baseball ballpark, as Globe Life Field is home to the MLB's Texas Rangers.

"I wish a lot of things could have been different for it," coach John Smith said. "... I think it was a great experience in the end and these guys will remember it."

In another historic performance, Daton Fix became the first wrestler to represent his university and country in the same day as he won bouts for Team USA and for the Cowboys. The 2021 senior world silver medalist at 61 kg, Fix took on Guesseppe Rea of Ecuador in a freestyle match to open the event and ended it in the first period with a 10-0 victory via technical superiority.

"Anytime I get to represent my country it's an honor," Fix said. "I know that not everyone has those opportunities, and I don't ever take anything like that for granted. I get to stand up there with guys that have done things that I dream of doing."

The collegiate dual kicked off with a thrilling win from Trevor Mastrogiovanni over Iowa's Jesse Ybarra, as the Cowboy sophomore overcame a third-period deficit with two takedowns in the final minute. The last one came just before the final horn with two seconds remaining to give Mastrogiovanni a 6-5 decision at 125 pounds.

Fix followed with a decision of his own in the next bout at 133 pounds, knocking off No. 3 Austin DeSanto in a 5-3 win to move to 3-0 in his career against the Hawkeye senior.

Iowa would take the next three bouts in matchups that all favored higher-ranked Hawkeyes to take a 9-6 lead on the team scoreboard before a 10-minute intermission.

Eighth-ranked Travis Wittlake had a hard-fought battle against Iowa's No. 5 Alex Marinelli at 165 pounds in the first bout after the break, but a late charge from Wittlake in the final 30 seconds netted just a stalling call against Marinelli as the Iowa senior escaped with a 3-2 decision.

After Iowa took another decision at 174 pounds, OSU's Dakota Geer answered with a 9-2 win over No. 15 Abe Assad at 184 pounds to cut the Iowa team lead to 15-9. Geer nearly scored the first bonus points of the dual, but a late escape from Assad kept it to a decision.

The Hawkeyes closed out the dual as heavy favorites in the final two bouts and won them both to end the night with a 23-9 advantage in the dual.

BUCKNELL	6
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 12	32

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team returned to the win column Friday night with a 32-6 win over Bucknell that saw eight Cowboys win their matches.

"We were really just concerned about scoring points and working hard and making sure that you recognize that takedowns win matches most of the time," head coach John Smith said. "I think we've ironed out a few things since the Iowa match, and even the Missouri match. In both matches, I wish we could've changed a little something, done something a little different, but as long as you're seeing that effort and that energy, there's a lot of hope for this team as we go down to the end. The hope is that we have a great and very competitive NCAA Championships."

Oklahoma State collected four bonus-point victories in bouts at 133, 174, 184 and heavyweight. With the dual starting at 133 pounds, second-ranked Daton Fix got the Pokes an early 5-0 lead as he picked up his third technical fall of the season in a 21-6 win over Kurt Phipps.

After losses at 157 and 165 that brought the Bison within five on the team score, Dustin Plott stepped up with a first period fall over Sam Barnes. The pin in 1:44 is the fastest of Plott's career and the first of the season. Dakota Geer followed Plott's win with a major decision of his own that puts him in a tie for the team lead this season with four. Leading 2-0 after the first period, Geer opened up his offense as he reversed Logan Deacetis to start the second and racked up eight takedowns the rest of the way en route to a 21-8 major decision. At heavyweight, Luke Surber claimed his sixth bonus-point victory of the season in a 20-4 technical fall that Surber ended with a takedown and four-point turn with 10 seconds remaining in the second period.

"I rode him pretty easy. I wasn't having much success turning him, so I knew in the second I was just going to take him down and let him up when I could," Surber said. "From there the points started opening up."

Four Cowboys won their matches by decision, including true freshman Carter Young who collected an 8-3 win over No. 26 Darren Miller in a match Young controlled from the start. Trevor Mastrogiovanni improved to 14-1 on the season with a 3-0 victory at 125 pounds, while Kaden Gfeller nearly nabbed bonus points in a 9-3 victory over Kolby DePron. Gavin Stika won his second dual match of the season in front of the home crowd at 197 pounds as he defeated Mason McCready, 3-2, in a hard-fought match. Stika will be the starter at 197 for the remainder of the season after it was announced that AJ Ferrari, who was 10-0 and ranked No. 1, will not return this season.

"These are opportunities that come up unexpectedly, and they come in all shapes and sizes," Stika said. "It's something special to wear an orange singlet. It's not something to be taken for granted, it's an important thing."

OKLAHOMA NO. 24	16
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 12	18

STILLWATER - The Oklahoma State wrestling team knocked off No. 24 Oklahoma, 18-16, in an exciting dual that came down to the final two matches.

Trailing, 16-10, heading into the final two matches, the Cowboys needed to win the remaining matches at 133 at 141 pounds, and secure bonus points in one of the bouts to defeat the Sooners for the 15th consecutive time. Second-ranked Daton Fix stepped onto the mat and proceeded to earn a 12-4 major decision over Tony Madrigal, which set up true freshman Carter Young to have an opportunity to win the dual for Oklahoma State with a win in his match against Jacob Butler.

The Stillwater native delivered for the Cowboys as he got off to a quick start with three takedowns in the first period. He would add two more takedowns and a riding time point to collect an 11-3 major decision of his own and cap off an exciting Bedlam win for the Pokes.

"You live for those moments, you know? I was ready to put on for my team," Young said. "I wasn't going to go in there and lose that match. It was just awesome having the crowd behind me. It felt really good."

The dual started off with a major decision from Kaden Gfeller at 149 pounds, in what could be the final match of his career in Gallagher-Iba Arena. He defeated No. 18 Willie McDougald, who was previously 12-3 on the season and unbeaten in duals. Gfeller applied forward pressure on McDougald from the start as he forced three stalling calls in the first period, leading to two points. Leading 5-2 heading into the final period, Gfeller quickly escaped and worked for a takedown and four-point turn as time expired that secured a 12-2 major decision.

"Yeah, that was awesome," Gfeller said. "It was a great way to win my last match in Gallagher and for it to be like that was amazing."

Following Gfeller, the Cowboys felt the impact of being without three starters as Wyatt Sheets (157), Travis Wittlake (165) and AJ Ferrari (197) were all out with injuries. Daniel Manibog and Jalin Harper lost decisions to ranked Sooners in place of Sheets and Wittlake, who were injured in Friday's dual versus Bucknell, while Gavin Stika dropped a major decision to No. 17 Jake Woodley at 197 pounds. Top-10 ranked Cowboys Trevor Mastrogiovanni and Dakota Geer were each upset by their Sooner opponents.

The high school teammates from Tuttle stepped up for OSU as Dustin Plott won a 4-3 decision over No. 17 Anthony Mantanona at 174 pounds and heavyweight Luke Surber handed OU's Josh Heindselman his first Bedlam loss in a 4-2 decision. The win moved the Pokes within three in the team score and set up the fireworks as the dual shifted back to the lower weights.

"I was pleased with our performance for the most part," head coach John Smith said. "It was good to see Surber create some action and pick up that win. That was an important win that set the stage for us a little bit, and definitely got us in the driver seat."

With Sunday's victory, Oklahoma State now holds a 147-27-10 series lead over the Sooners and have won 23 straight dual matches between the teams in Gallagher-Iba Arena, beginning with a win on Feb. 15, 1997.

TULSA, Okla. – Oklahoma State wrestlers Daton Fix, Kaden Gfeller and Dustin Plott won individual conference titles Sunday night as the Cowboys wrapped up the 2022 Big 12 Wrestling Championships at fourth place in the team standings.

Although no other team finished with more than one champion, OSU's 107.5 team points were just behind Missouri's 131.5, Oklahoma's 113 and Iowa State's 110.

"I thought we had a pretty good day today," coach John Smith said. "We went 4-1 earlier and 3-1 tonight, so it's a good last day going 7-2 overall. As you know in a 10-team tournament, it's hard to win a tournament when three of your weights struggle to score and that's the difference, but something that I thought could happen."

Fix, who claimed his third individual 133-pound Big 12 title, jumped out to an early 4-1 lead with a pair of takedowns in the first period and secured a 6-2 win over second-seeded Kyle Biscoglia of Northern Iowa. He is the 36th three-time conference champion and the 18th three-time Big 12 champion in Oklahoma State history. He enters the NCAA Championships with a perfect 21-0 record this season.

Gfeller's win came in a 149-pound Bedlam bout against second-seeded Willie McDougald of Oklahoma. In a tight matchup that featured two escapes and no takedowns, Gfeller repeatedly pressured McDougald to the edge of the mat and had several near misses on completing shots. After McDougald was hit for a second stalling call with just over a minute remaining, Gfeller was able to grind out the 2-1 win for his second career conference title and his first since winning as a freshman in 2019.

Plott earned his first Big 12 title in what was possibly the most thrilling finish of the night. Trailing Missouri's Peyton Mocco, 3-1, entering the final period, Plott cut the lead with an early escape then wrestled through several late scrambles and finally broke through for a takedown on the edge of the mat in the final 15 seconds. After a lift and return to the mat, Plott rode out the rest of the period to secure the 4-3 win.

Sophomore Luke Surber nearly joined them on top of the podium to become the lowest-seeded wrestler in history to win a Big 12 title but fell just short of completing a heroic pin. He faced top-seeded and undefeated Wyatt Hendrickson of Air Force in the heavyweight final and took him to his back in a cradle in the opening 20 seconds of the bout. Hendrickson was able to wrestle out of it and recover before pulling away for a 16-6 win as the heavy favorite. The runner-up finish completed an impressive showing for the Cowboy's first time to compete at the conference championships.

With the addition of the three individual champions, Oklahoma State now has 118 Big 12 champions and 293 conference champions in its wrestling history.

After their performance this weekend, the Cowboys clinched six automatic berths to the 2022 NCAA Wrestling Championships. In addition to the four Cowboy finalists, Trevor Mastrogiovanni and Carter Young also secured spots at 125 pounds and 141 pounds, respectively. OSU's other four wrestlers can still an at-large selection to the event, scheduled for March 17-19 at Little Caesars Arena in Detroit.

DETROIT – Oklahoma State wrestler Daton Fix's season came to an end with an NCAA runner-up finish for the third time in his career Saturday night as the second-seeded Cowboy dropped a 3-2 decision to top-seeded Roman Bravo-Young of Penn State.

In a hard-fought battle that came down to the final seconds, Bravo-Young was able to fend off a final charge from Fix to win the decision and the 133-pound title.

Fix, who finished with a season record of 25-1 and moved to 72-4 in his career, is now the 30th wrestler in Oklahoma State history with three top-two finishes at the NCAA Championships, and he's the first to accomplish the feat since Alex Dieringer did so from 2014-16.

He reached the finals by starting 4-0 in the championship bracket with two bonus-point wins and victories over the Nos, 3, 10, 15 and 31 seeds in the weight class. The performance not only got him to 25 wins on the year, but also took his season totals to 17 bonus-point wins and 13 wins over ranked opponents.

Oklahoma State wrestling has now won 483 All-America honors in its history, which is far more than any other program, and OSU coach John Smith has now coached his wrestlers to 150 All-America honors in his career.

As a team, the Cowboys finished in 14th place with 38.5 points.

The event concluded the 2021-22 Cowboy wrestling season, which included a 13-4 dual record, three Big 12 individual titles, eight NCAA qualifiers and two All-America performers.

History

COWBOY WRESTLING TRADITION

Oklahoma State is the gold standard in the college wrestling world.

On the national level, the Cowboys have won 34 NCAA team titles, crowned 143 NCAA individual champions and earned 483 All-America honors.

No other program comes close to those astounding numbers.

It's a similar story on the conference level, with OSU winning 55 league titles as a team and Cowboy wrestlers combining to win 293 conference individual championships.

Furthermore, every four years, Oklahoma State is represented on the Olympic stage. Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning a gold medal a total of 11 times.

From the individual perspective, any list of greatest wrestlers in NCAA history must include Oklahoma State's Yojiro Uetake, who was a perfect 57-0 with three NCAA titles and Pat Smith, who was the first four-time NCAA champion in history.

Pat's older brother, John Smith was a two-time NCAA champion for the Cowboys and went on to win a staggering six world-level gold medals from 1987-92, while his OSU teammate, Kenny Monday won four world-level medals, including gold in 1988 and 1989.

All told, 28 members of the Cowboy wrestling program are Distinguished Members of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame and an additional 14 combined to earn Outstanding Wrestler distinction at the NCAA Championships a total of 15 times (Uetake took home the honor twice in 1965 and 1966).

The elite level of coaching and instruction that takes place in the Cowboy wrestling room can be credited for the program's perennial success dating back to its inaugural seasons.

Ed Gallagher is credited as the Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling. He launched Oklahoma State into a dominant position in the sport when he led the Cowboys to 11 NCAA titles from 1928-1940. His impact on the sport is still felt today.

Art Griffith and his eight NCAA titles succeeded Gallagher. Myron Roderick then guided the Cowboys to seven crowns. Tommy Chesbro and Joe Seay combined to win three NCAA titles before John Smith took over and rattled off five NCAA titles... and counting.

Dating back to the inception of the NCAA Wrestling Championships in 1928, every Oklahoma State head coach has led the Cowboys to at least one NCAA title and Gallagher, Griffith, Roderick, Seay and John Smith have served as coaches for Team USA at either the Olympics or World Championships.

In 1917, Gallagher delivered the first dual match win in OSU wrestling history and in 2011, John Smith led the Cowboys to their 1,000th dual match triumph. In between those landmark wins, OSU won more than 89 percent of its duals all-time to further its stranglehold as the gold standard in college wrestling.

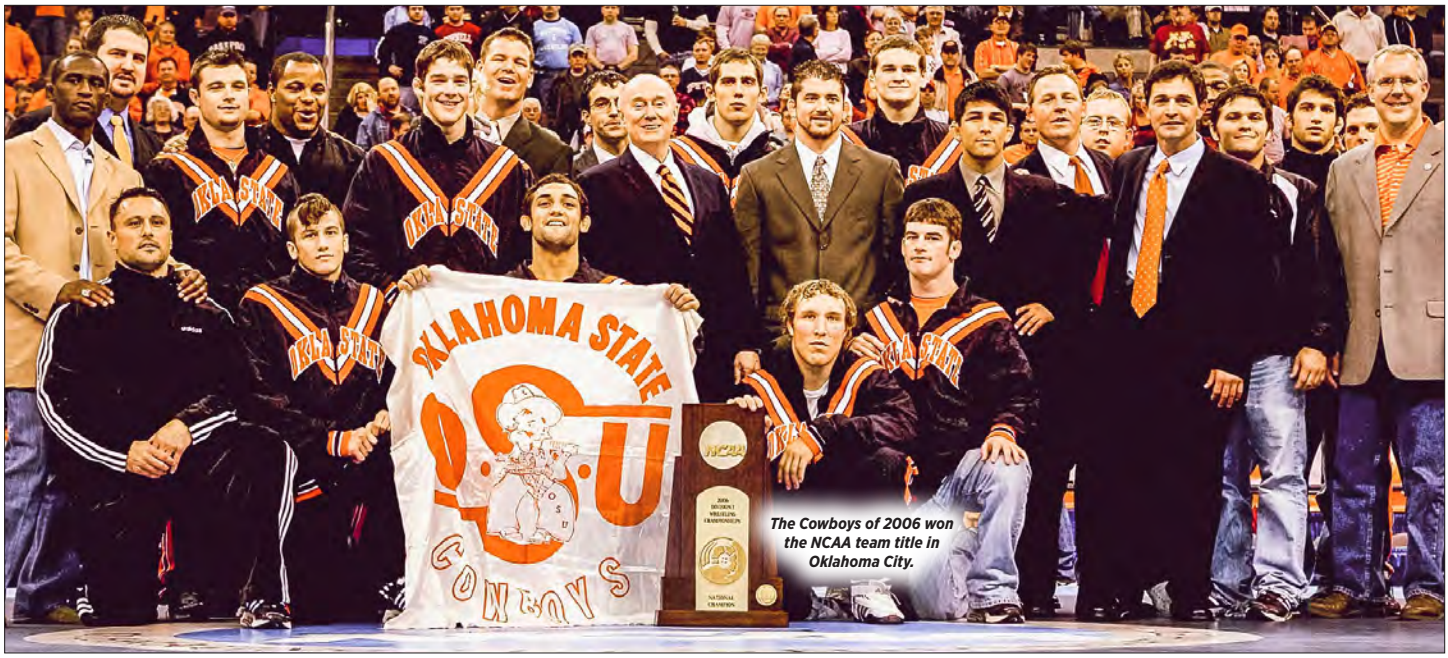
NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM STATS



The Cowboys of 2006 won the NCAA team title in Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma State has finished first as a team 34 times at the NCAA Wrestling Championships, including a tie in 1933. The NCAA did not keep team points in 1928 and 1930-33; therefore, the team championships are considered "unofficial" by the governing body during those years. The Cowboys have finished second 11 times and third 11 times. At least one individual champion has been from Oklahoma State in 65 of the 83 NCAA tournaments. NCAA OUTSTANDING WRESTLERS

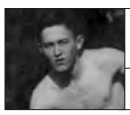
ALAN KELLY

1933 // 145 pounds

Alan Kelley capped a perfect 10-0 1933 season by storming to wins over Franklin&Marshall's Cassell in the first round of the NCAA Championships and Lehigh's B. Bishop in the second round. In the championship match, Kelley pinned Southwestern Oklahoma's F. Stout at the 12:12 mark to claim the 1933 NCAA Championship and earn Outstanding Wrestler honors. The next season, Kelley went 10-0 yet again and won his scond NCAA Championship. Of his 10 wins in 1934, seven came by fall.



ROSS FLOOD

1935 // 126 pounds

Ross Flood compiled a 31-1 overall record in three years at Oklahoma State, capped by a perfect 11-0 mark in 1935 that was highlighted by a win by fall over Southwestern Oklahoma's Gott in the NCAA Championship match. Flood pinned his opponent in three of his four matches at the 1935 NCAA Championships en route to earning Outstanding Wrestler recognition. Flood won the final 27 matches of his career, with 17 of those victories coming by fall. He went on to win the silver medal at the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

STANLEY HENSON

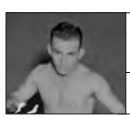
1937 // 145 pounds

Stanley Henson was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1937 NCAA Championships. He pinned his first opponent, Doolittle of Lafayette at the 3:17 mark, then came back to pick up another win by fall in the second round when he pinned Iowa State's Linn at 6:45. A semifinal win over Chicago University's Finwall preceded Henson's NCAA Championship-winning match over Illinois' McIlvoy. Henson compiled a 31-1 record during his three years at Oklahoma State that included wins in each of his final 29 bouts.

JOE MCDANIEL

1938 // 118 pounds

Joe McDaniel capped a perfect 1938 season by earning Outstanding Wrestler accolades at the NCAA Championships that year. McDaniel won each of his three matches at NCAAs that year, pinning Penn State's King at the 2:50 mark in his first match before winning by decision over Minnesota's Hanson in the semifinal and Indiana's Duffy in the championship match. McDaniel started his OSU career by losing two of his first three bouts. He didn't lose again after that, rattling off 27 consecutive wins to finish out his career.



AL WHITEHURST

1941 // 136 pounds

Al Whitehurst was tabbed as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1941 NCAA Championships after picking up four wins, two of which came by fall. Whitehurst claimed a 6-2 win over Michigan State's Maxwell in the championship match to cap a 1941 season in which he put together a perfect 10-0 record. Whitehurst finished his two-year OSU career with a 19-1 overall record, with his lone setback a 1-0 overtime defeat in his first season.

DAVID ARNDT

1942 // 145 pounds

David Arndt never lost a match during his three-year career at Oklahoma State, stringing together a 23-0 career mark. A three-time NCAA champion, he was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler after storming through the 1942 NCAA Championships. Arndt picked up a healthy 13-3 win over Nebraska's Stout in his first match at NCAAs before replicating that score with a 13-3 wipeout of Rutgers' Paterno in his second match. Arndt pinned Cornell's Ellison at the 7:36 mark of the semifinal match before romping to an 18-5 win over Michigan's Johnson in the championship match.

CHARLES HETRICK

1949 // 128 pounds

Charles Hetrick earned Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1949 NCAA Championships. Hetrick finished his perfect 12-0 campaign that year by picking up a 6-2 win over Virginia Military's Perry in the first round. He pinned Colorado's Karbatsch at the 5:40 mark in the second round before claiming a 4-2 win over Northern Iowa's Bush in the semifinal. The championship match resulted in a 4-1 Hetrick win over Cornell's Thomsen.

YOJIRO UETAKE

1965 and 1966 // 133 pounds

Just one year after winning the gold medal for his native Japan in the 1964 Tokyo Olympics, Yojiro Uetake took the mat for Oklahoma State and rolled to Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1965 NCAA Championships. Uetake won each of his five matches at NCAAs that year, highlighted by a 6-1 win over Lehigh's Peritore in the championship match. His closest match at the 1965 NCAAs was a 5-3 semifinal win over Michigan State's Behm. He became the first Cowboy ever to be named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Championships twice when he secured that recognition in 1966 after steamrolling to five one-sided victories. Uetake pinned Lehigh's Peritore at the 4:31 mark of the championship match to cap a dominating run through the NCAA Championships in which he won his bouts by scores of 12-4, 11-2, 18-3 and 11-2. Uetake finished his collegiate career with a 57-0 record before going on to claim his second Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics.

DWAYNE KELLER

1968 // 123 pounds

Dwayne Keller was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1968 NCAA Championships after picking up a series of hard-fought victories in each of his final three matches. Keller started his run with a 12-5 victory over UCLA's Vallance, then pinned Army's Patton. A pair of one-point wins over Indiana State's Parker (5-4) and SUNY-Cortland's DeSario (3-2) ensued, putting Keller into the championship match, where he claimed a 4-2 win over Portland State's Sanders. Keller won two NCAA championships during his freshman and junior seasons at OSU and lost in the championship bout his senior year. He compiled a 64-1 record during his time at Oklahoma State.

DARRELL KELLER

1971 // 142 pounds

Darrell Keller claimed Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1971 NCAA Championships after claiming the second of his two national titles. Keller stomped his first two opponents to the tune of a 6-0 win over Stanford's Thomas and an 8-0 win over Western Michigan's Bacon. Keller's semifinal match against Navy's Keaser was a classic, with Keller claiming an overtime win to set up a 16-12 victory over Washington's Owings in the championship match.

MIKE SHEETS

1983 // 167 pounds

Mike Sheets went a perfect 29-0 in 1983 and was honored as the Outstading Wrestler of the NCAA Championships that year after dominating the competition. Sheets started his run by romping to a 29-2 win over St. Lawrence's Todd Northrup in the first round before crushing Portland State's Kevin Benson, 14-0 in the second round. Sheets beat Illinois State's Mike Jones, 6-0 in the quarterfinal before handing Nebraska's Ray Oliver a 5-1 defeat in the semis. A convincing 14-0 win over Navy's John Reich put a cap on Sheets' impressive performance.

JOHN SMITH

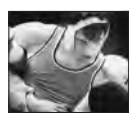
Just one year after winning the first of his U.S. Freestyle National Championships and claiming gold at the Goodwill Games in Moscow and well on his way toward establishing himself as the best wrestler in the world, John Smith was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1987 NCAA Championships. Smith crushed the opposition at NCAAs that year, pinning Drexel's Tim Rothka at the 6:30 mark in his first-round match before rolling to a 23-8 technical fall win over Michigan State's Dan Matauch in the second round. Smith made it two technical fall victories in a row when he handed Lehigh's Jim Frick a 22-7 beating in the third round. A 20-9 semifinal win over Ohio's Rob Johnson set up a rematch with Nebraska's Gil Sanchez for the national title. Sanchez handed Smith his only loss of the year in Smith's first match of the regular season. Smith avenged that loss with an 18-4 pounding of Sanchez for the crown.



CHRIS BARNES

1990 // 177 pounds

Chris Barnes secured NCAA Outstanding Wrestler honors in 1990 after storming through the competition. Barnes pinned Duke's Keith Girvan at the 6:31 mark in the first round before picking up technical fall wins over North Carolina's Ben Oberly (19-4) and Rider's John Hangey (22-7) in the second and third rounds, respectively. William & Mary's Rob Larmore suffered a 14-8 defeat at the hands of Barnes in the semifinals before Barnes put a cap on his run to the NCAA crown with a 10-2 major decision victory over Minnesota's Marty Morgan in the championship match.

PAT SMITH

1994 // 158 pounds

The only four-time national champion in Oklahoma State's illustrious histoy, Pat Smith earned Outstanding Wrestler honors his senior year at the 1994 NCAA Championships. Smith won by technical fall in each of his first two matches at NCAAs that year, claiming a 23-8 win over Kent State's Jim Andrassy in the first round before disposing of Nebraska's Jason Kraft by a 26-10 spread in the second round. Smith beat Oregon State's Dan Alar by a 14-3 major decision before moving on to the semifinals, where he beat Boston University's Earl Walker, 6-2. Smith was crowned with his fourth NCAA championship when he beat Michigan's Sean Bormet, 5-3 in the championship match.

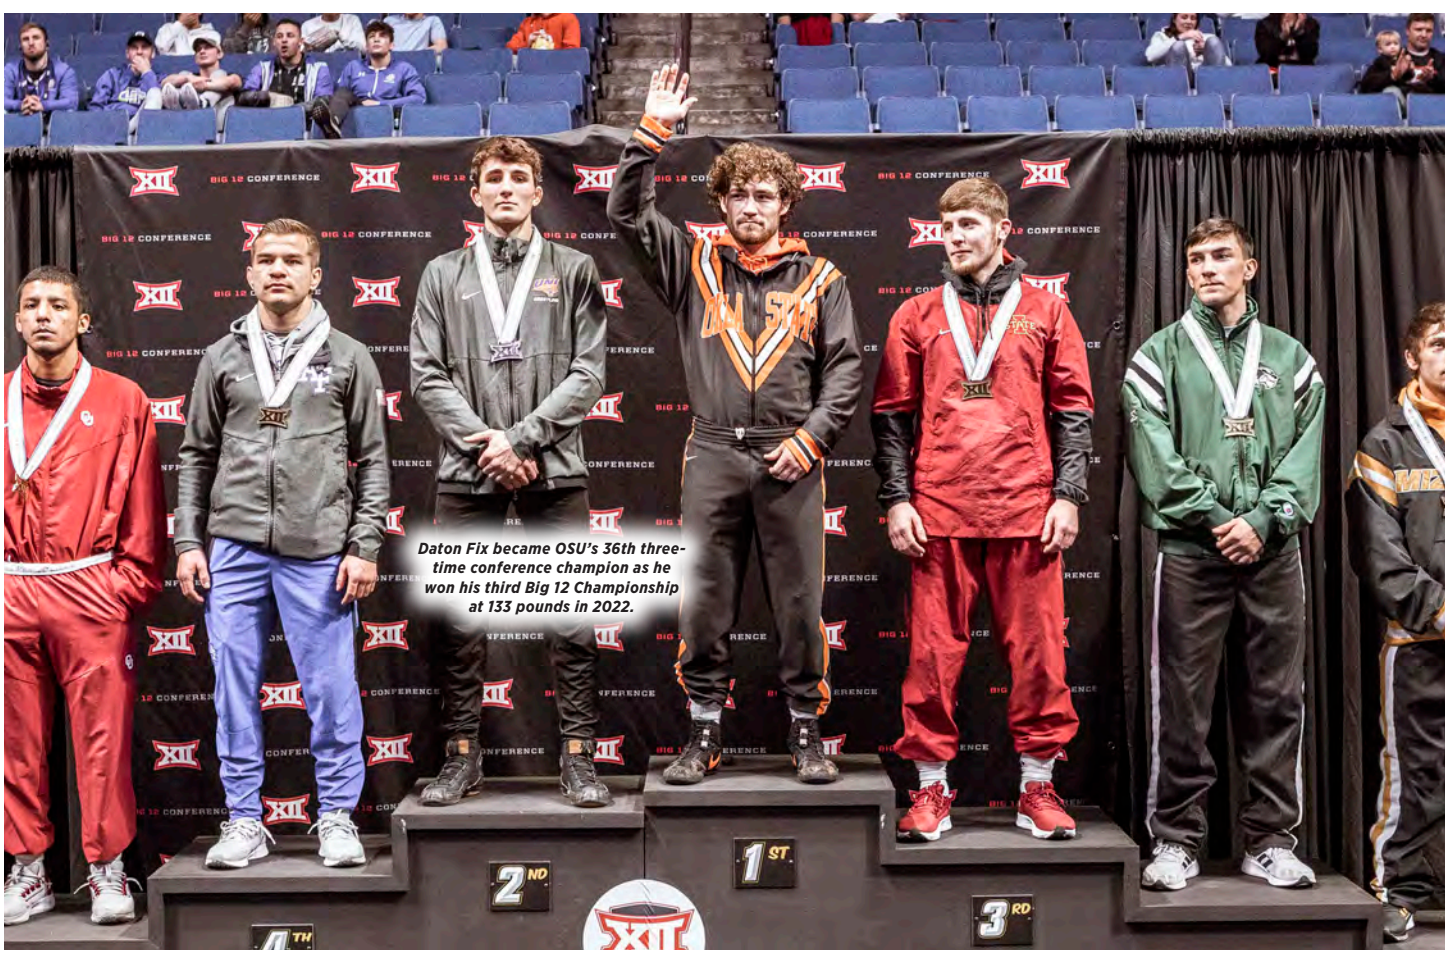
* OSU won the team title and later vacated it. OSU did not compete in 1993 due to NCAA sanctions.



Daton Fix became OSU's 36th three-time conference champion as he won his third Big 12 Championship at 133 pounds in 2022.

COWBOY WRESTLING OLYMPIANS

Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning a gold medal a total of 11 times. That includes OSU three-time NCAA champion Yojiro Uetake, who took the gold medal twice for his home country of Japan and John Smith, who won two gold medals for the United States.

WRESTLING LEGEND ED GALLAGHER

By Mark Palmer (July 31, 2008)

Re-printed with permission

Thirty-four NCAA team titles. 133 individual NCAA champs. Over 400 NCAA All-Americans.

By any measure, Oklahoma State has built a wrestling legacy unmatched by any other college wrestling program over many decades. And the man who laid the strong foundation for that legacy is Ed Gallagher, Cowboys wrestling coach from 1916 through 1940.

As head coach, Gallagher's Cowboys racked up a 136-5-4 overall record for an incredible .952 winning percentage. During his 24 seasons at the reins, Gallagher's teams had nineteen undefeated seasons, winning eleven NCAA team titles. Gallagher coached 22 wrestlers to earn 37 individual national championships; seventeen of his Cowboys wrestled in Olympic competition, with three winning gold medals. Because of these accomplishments, Ed Gallagher's name adorns the arena at Oklahoma State... and he was named one of three "Best Wrestling Coaches" in an online poll of wrestling fans for the NCAA 75th Anniversary Team honors in 2005. (The other two coaches: Iowa State's Harold Nichols, and University of Iowa's Dan Gable.)

The Versatile Athlete Who Never Wrestled

Born September 5, 1887 in Perth, Kansas, Edward Clark Gallagher was a natural athlete, running track and playing football in high school. As a student at Oklahoma State -- then called Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College -- Gallagher set 100-yard dash and hurdle records that stood for thirty years. In 1908, he ran 99 yards for a touchdown against Kansas State, which still stands as an Oklahoma State record for longest run from scrimmage.

After graduating from Oklahoma State in 1909 with an engineering degree, Ed Gallagher stayed in Stillwater as the school's track coach. In 1913, he was lured away to Baker College in Baldwin City, Kansas, where he coached all sports ... however, two years later, he was back at Oklahoma State, serving as athletic director.

During the 1914-1915 school year, Oklahoma State launched its wrestling program, with A.M. Colville as coach. That first season, the Cowboys wrestled only one dual meet – held in conjunction with a gymnastics event -- and were trounced by the University of Texas. The following year, Ed Gallagher took the helm of the wrestling program ... despite never having wrestled in an organized program in high school or college.

Ed Gallagher's lack of mat experience may seem stunning these days, considering today's top college wrestling coaches have resumes loaded with high school state and national wrestling titles, NCAA championships and even international mat honors. Yet, when Gallagher was in school, organized wrestling programs were rare, outside those at YMCAs and men's clubs, or at eastern colleges ... so opportunities to compete on the mat were very limited for someone from the Great Plains such as Gallagher.

The lack of on-the-mat experience ultimately didn't hurt Ed Gallagher and his Oklahoma State wrestlers. Admittedly, Gallagher's first season as head coach (1915-16) was a losing one; the Cowboys again had just one dual meet, again losing to Texas, this time by an even more lopsided 22.5-2.5 score. However, in his second year, Gallagher's matmen wrestled three duals, winning two (against Emporia State and Texas), and tying with Arkansas.

That winning momentum was sidelined after the 1916-17 season; because of World War I, there was no wrestling team at Oklahoma State, as most of the male students were serving in the military or reserves. However, when the program resumed in the 1919-20 school year, the Gallagher dynasty began its long, successful run as the dominant college wrestling program throughout the 1920s and 30s.

Engineering Success on the Mat

As an engineer, Ed Gallagher employed a systematic approach to the sport of wrestling ... starting with how he selected young men to wrestle for Oklahoma State. He looked at their families, picking sons of "upstanding" parents ... and favoring "only boys who cannot go out in society." In other words, those who might be considered economically disadvantaged, and would view wrestling as a springboard for success in life beyond the mat.

Gallagher also expected his wrestlers to live clean -- no smoking, no drinking, and, perhaps most startling nowadays, no dating. "The best woman in the world can do you no good," claimed the Cowboy coach. (No, Gallagher was not a confirmed bachelor; he married right out of college, and together, Ed and the former Mary Austella Taylor had a total of six children -- three boys, and three girls.) Along with clean living off the mat, Gallagher stressed clean behavior on the mat. He wanted his men to wrestle tough, with determination ... but with character, and good sportsmanship.

In selecting wrestlers for his program, Gallagher also favored a specific type of physique. He sought "lean plainsmen" -- tall, slim, strong men, rather than compact, muscular types who were typical in college wrestling even 80-90 years ago. Ideally, these long, lean wrestlers must have quick reactions, according to the coach's criteria.

Ed Gallagher's engineering background also guided his primary focus -- the study of leverage, and how it applied to wrestling. Using a human skeleton and rubber bands, he spent hours figuring out holds and counters -- one report saying he spent at least two hours a day in his office on this task. The Cowboy coach developed, by his own count, 400-500 holds and variations; he expected each of his men to know at least 200 of those.

Perhaps most surprising, Ed Gallagher was open about sharing his scientific approach to wrestling. His teams often put on wrestling demonstrations before or after a dual meet in an opponent's gym. In 1939, he and his Cowboys were featured in a three-page "how-to-wrestle" feature for the popular photo-magazine, "Life." In addition, he wrote two very popular instructional books, titled simply "Amateur Wrestling" and "Wrestling."

Break it Down

Here's a specific example of how the engineer in Ed Gallagher guided his instruction of his wrestlers: He told them to think of an opponent on all fours as a table. To succeed, his wrestlers need to "break" at least one leg of the table. If the opponent's arms were weak, that was the point of attack; if the arms were strong, go for the legs.

Another way to "break" an opponent, according to Gallagher: Make more than one attempt or counter. Continue a string of attacks until you have opponent under control. In other words, never give up.

Not all of Ed Gallagher's ideas came from his own engineering mind. According to the book about the history of the Oklahoma State wrestling program, "Cowboys Ride Again!" Gallagher picked up a tip from 1920s professional wrestling champ Ed "Strangler" Lewis: If possible, "take two deep breaths and immediately pitch back viciously. To do this correctly, break out of the predicament first, and, step back and draw the breaths. Now, he (the opponent) will see this and either follow suit or at least temporarily relax, and you can catch him somewhat relaxed."

Eat to Win

Coach Gallagher made a science of studying the diet of his wrestlers. He generally allowed his wrestlers to eat what they wanted, as long as it what was what they typically consumed, in reasonable quantities. However, he discouraged his wrestlers from consuming cold drinks.

He focused on glycogen, the form in which sugar is used in the body, turning one-third of that into carbon dioxide, and the remaining two-thirds to water and lactic acid -- the cause of oxygen debt, leading to hard breathing during exertion in workouts and during a wrestling match.

After weigh-ins, instead of chowing down with a big meal as most wrestlers did in the 1920s and 30s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually contented themselves with hot tea, sweetened with brown sugar, honey or Karo syrup. He wanted his men to be "properly sugared" especially when trying to make weight.

Your Great-Grandfather's Cowboys

College wrestling of the Ed Gallagher era differs significantly in a number of ways from the sport we know today. For starters, the Cowboys wrestled just 5-8 dual meets in a typical season in the 1920s and 30s. Each regulation match lasted ten minutes. There was no point scoring system; matches were won by a pin (back then, shoulders had to be on the mat for a full three seconds), or by "time advantage" -- essentially, whoever had the most riding time. In 1938 -- towards the end of Gallagher's coaching career -- this system was replaced, with the referee making the decision as to who won. The referee decision system didn't last; in 1941, the beginnings of today's point system made their appearance in college wrestling.

Perhaps the most startling difference for today's fans: For home meets, the Oklahoma State wrestlers competed in a roped-off ring, like those for boxing or professional wrestling. The actual wrestling area was the same as on-the-floor mats in other college events. In reviewing "NCAA Wrestling Guides" of the era -- the annual rules-and-results publication for high school and college wrestling -- there are diagrams governing ring size, number of ropes, what the ropes should be made of, and how they should be secured... but nothing about rules governing how the ring could be used. The only hint: In "Cowboys Ride Again!" there's a description of a match in which an angry Oklahoma State wrestler threw an opponent over the top rope, which apparently was against the rules... but the Cowboy wasn't disqualified, and the match resumed.

The Cowboys weren't alone in wrestling in roped-off rings. According to college yearbook photos, teams at Indiana University, University of Iowa, Iowa State Teachers College (now University of Northern Iowa), and Northwestern University also had rings for home meets 70-80 years ago. (The NCAA banned wrestling rings in the early 1940s.)

The gear Ed Gallagher's men wore to wrestle was radically different, too. No one-piece black-and-orange, synthetic-fabric singlets for the Cowboys back then. During the more than two decades Gallagher coached at Oklahoma State, his wrestlers wore a variety of uniforms. Through much of the 1920s, his wrestlers wore full-length wool tights. There was a time where the Cowboys wore tights with what was called a black Tom -- also known as an outside supporter -- on top of the tights. Towards the late 1930s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually wore wool trunks, much like we associate with pro wrestling, with no tights.

Despite these variations in what the Cowboys wore below the waist, throughout the 1920s and 30s they usually wrestled bare-chested at home meets and at events at colleges in the Midwest and Southwest. However, when wrestling in the east, Gallagher's wrestlers would often be required to put on sleeveless shirts, at the request of the school hosting the event. (An NCAA rule change in the mid 1960s prohibited shirtless wrestling.) Going all the way to the top ... headgear was not required as it is now, and a very rare sight in the Gallagher era.

When not wrestling, the Oklahoma State wrestlers often traveled in gear appropriate to their team name. Outfitted in Stetson hats, colorful flannel shirts, and cowboy boots, team members made an incredible impression wherever they traveled. Adding to the Cowboy mystique, some team members performed rope tricks in opponents' gyms before some dual meets.

The Cowboy Way of Winning

No matter what they wore -- or whether they wrestled in a ring or mats on the floor -- Ed Gallagher's Oklahoma State Cowboys dominated the college wrestling scene for more than two decades. In the years after World War I, the Cowboys never had a losing season. In fact, in the eleven-year period from the 1919-20 through the 1930-31 seasons, the Cowboys never lost a dual meet. That's 69 consecutive wins!

Among the Cowboys' opponents during the Roaring Twenties: University of Oklahoma, University of Kansas, Kansas State, Texas, Iowa State, Cornell College of Iowa ... as well as farther-flung teams such as West Virginia, the U.S. Naval Academy, and the Philadelphia Athletic Club. Who broke the eleven-year, 70-match winning streak? Cross-state rivals Oklahoma. The Sooners beat the Cowboys by one point in the last dual meet of the 1931-32 season. During the rest of the decade, the Cowboys had only one other loss (at Southwestern Oklahoma State in the 1936-37 season) ... and three ties. Most victories were by a substantial margin.

In 1928, the NCAA launched a national wrestling championship to conclude the dual-meet season. At the very first NCAAs -- held at the Armory at Iowa State -- Oklahoma State claimed four individual titles out of a total of seven weight classes.

That was no fluke; in the thirteen years of NCAA competition, the men coached by Ed Gallagher ruled the national championships each year. The leanest year for Cowboys was 1936, when just one wrestler -- Harley "Doc" Strong -- won a title. However, in a typical year, at least three Cowboys brought home an individual championship.

During the Gallagher era, 22 individual wrestlers won a total of 37 NCAA titles. Among the Cowboys who won three championships (back when freshmen were not eligible for NCAA/varsity competition): Earl McCready (the very first three-time college champ), Jack VanBebber, Conrad Caldwell, Rex Peery, Ross Flood, Joe McDaniel, and Stanley Henson.

Ed Gallagher's men did incredibly well on the ultimate international stage, too. From 1924 through 1936, Oklahoma State had fifteen wrestlers qualify for the U.S. Olympic wrestling teams ... along with Earl McCready wrestling for his native Canada at the 1928 Olympics, and Canadian big man George Chiga competing for his home team at the 1936 Olympics. Of these Cowboy Olympians, four earned medals in freestyle competition. At the 1932 Olympics in Los Angeles, Bobby Pearce won gold at 123 pounds, while Jack VanBebber claimed gold at 158.5. In the 1936 Berlin Olympics, Ross Flood brought home a silver medal at 123 pounds, and Frank Lewis won gold at 158.5.

Coach Gallagher's Toughest Battle

For years, Ed Gallagher dealt with the challenges of Parkinson's, the same disease afflicting legendary boxing champ Muhammad Ali and actor Michael J. Fox today. In 1936, Oklahoma State and the entire Stillwater community put on a fundraising event at the school's Lewis Field football stadium so that coach Gallagher could travel with his wrestlers to the Berlin Olympics ... then take a side trip to Vienna to be tested by physicians there, at the request of his son Clarence, a doctor.

To help lighten his load, in 1938, Ed Gallagher retired as director of physical education at Oklahoma State, but continued on as wrestling coach.

It was about this time that construction began on a new, $500,000 arena on the Oklahoma State campus that would serve as home for the Cowboy basketball and wrestling programs. Completed in 1939, what was originally called the 4-H Club and Student Activity Building was state-of-the-art for the time, featuring an air-cooling system ... and over 5,000 theater-type seats, as well as collapsible bleachers for wrestling events, bringing total seating capacity to nearly 9,000 fans.

February 3, 1939 was declared "Gallagher Day" in Stillwater, in honor of the beloved wrestling coach. It was that day that the new arena -- nicknamed "the Madison Square Garden of the Midwest" -- was officially dedicated. That night, the facility hosted its first event, a dual meet with Indiana University, one of the top programs of the era. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers 18-9.

At the end of the 1939-40 season, outdoorsman and hunter Ed Gallagher went to the Rocky Mountains for an extended vacation. While in Colorado, he collapsed and died on August 28, 1940 ... just a week shy of his 54th birthday.

His funeral was held at the new arena that had been named in his honor (and is still home to the wrestling Cowboys, now called Gallagher-Iba Arena, having been substantially upgraded and expanded in 2001.) Thousands came for the funeral for the man referred to in obituaries as "the Dean of Collegiate Wrestling" and "the Knute Rockne of the Mats" (referring to the legendary Notre Dame football coach killed in a plane crash a few years' earlier).

Reading the text of the 1939 "Gallagher Day" souvenir program and the 1940 Redskin yearbook -- the last featuring Ed Gallagher as coach -- has added poignancy now. Even though he had been battling Parkinson's for years, there was optimism in the words in these publications produced in the last year of his life. In the "Gallagher Day" program, long-time friend and sportswriter Randle Perdue began his profile of the coach with this positive paragraph:

"The big news about Ed Gallagher is that he is improving in health! In recent weeks he has found a new medicine, the result of long search by his son, Dr. Clarence Gallagher, and evidently it is effective. Ed has gained nearly twenty pounds in weight. He is more cheerful, more hopeful. He is optimistic about the future. In fact, he has made a date to go quail hunting next fall. It will be his first time in about five years. When Ed gets back to quail hunting, he will be the Ed Gallagher of old."

In the 1940 Redskin yearbook, the last line of text in the description of the Cowboys' 1939-40 season closes with "With two intercollegiate champions and several intercollegiate runners-up returning, Coach Gallagher should have little trouble turning out another national championship for Oklahoma A. and M. College in 1940-1941." (Art Griffith became the Oklahoma State head wrestling coach upon Gallagher's passing in 1940. The Cowboys were 6-0 for the 1940-41 season, winning four individual titles and the team title at the 1941 NCAAs.)

The Gallagher Legacy

In tallying up the accomplishments of the Ed Gallagher era, the stats are impressive: 19 undefeated seasons out of 23 ... only two losses in the last nine seasons ... six AAU (Amateur Athletic Union) team titles ... ten outright NCAA team titles (tied for first for an eleventh)... 73 NCAA and AAU individual champs ... and three Olympic gold medalists.

Ed Gallagher's legacy goes far beyond those stats. He coached a number of wrestlers who went on to become high school and college wrestling coaches themselves. Among the Cowboys turned coaches: Cliff Keen at the University of Michigan ... Paul Keen at Oklahoma ... Buell Patterson, who coached at Kent State, Nebraska and Illinois... Rex Peery at Pittsburgh ... Fendley Collins at Michigan State ... Joe McDaniel at Syracuse and Wyoming ... and Orion Stuteville at Northwestern.

Buell Patterson weighed in with his thoughts on coach Gallagher: "A reason that the men who have worked under Ed like him so well is that if he lost a match, they never received a bawling out. And believe me, it is a lot of satisfaction to give all one has for a man and know that what one gives will be satisfactory with him, even if one makes mistakes."

Another one of his coaching protégés, Carl "Dutch" Voyles (who coached at Duke and William & Mary), said of his mentor: "No one ever said an unkind word about him. That must have been because Ed was so full of kindness himself ... there are all too few men like Gallagher in this world of ours."

In his article about Ed Gallagher for the 1939 "Gallagher Day" program, Randle Perdue said of the man he had known since 1911:

"Applicable adjectives, on which Ed's friends all agree as describing him, include honest, fair, clean, square, quiet, unassuming, uncomplaining, canny, crafty, foxy, firm, shrewd, fearless, modest, sincere, stubborn, determined, and uncompromising – altogether friendly and possessing a fine sense of humor..."

"Gallagher has never been cocky, or disagreeably boastful. He has taken his victories graciously. He has never complained about a referee's decision -- at least not publicly."

The legacy of Ed Gallagher lives on in so many ways, beyond having his name on an arena ... or the annual award that bears his name, given to an Oklahoma State wrestling alumnus. (Among the past honorees: Bobby Douglas, Doug Blubaugh, John Smith, Pat Smith, and Kenny Monday.) His analytical, engineering-based approach to amateur wrestling revolutionized the sport. The success of his Cowboys helped launch high school wrestling programs throughout the state of Oklahoma, making the Sooner State a leading hotbed for wrestling to this day. What's more, the foundation of success laid by Ed Gallagher and his wrestlers has been built upon over the decades to the point where today, the Oklahoma State Cowboys still claim the most individual and team titles in NCAA wrestling.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

ED GALLAGHER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1916-40

He was a pioneer, not only of wrestling techniques but also of wrestling tradition. From Oklahoma State University, where his coaching achievements were unparalleled, Ed Gallagher's influence spread across the nation. Long after his death in 1940, the torch was carried onward by Gallagher's pupils, who became great coaches in their own right .

As a collegian, Gallagher excelled in football and track. He was clocked once in 9.8 seconds while winning the 100-yard dash in the Southwest Conference meet, and his 99-yard run in the Kansas State football game that same year, 1908, still stands as the OSU school record.

He earned his degree in electrical engineering, but chose a career of coaching football and track and teaching physical education. He remained at his alma mater several years, then went to Baker University in Kansas. In 1916, he returned to Oklahoma State as director of athletics.

Gallagher introduced scientific wrestling to gym glasses and put his first varsity team on the mat that year. He applied his engineering knowledge of leverage and stress to the development of more than 400 wrestling holds. He was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods.

In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams. His wrestlers won 138 dual meets, tied four and lost only five. During the 10 years prior to 1932 his teams scored 69 consecutive victories.

When the NCAA tournament was inaugurated in 1928, halfway through his coaching career, Gallagher's wrestlers won four of the seven individual titles, earning recognition as the first championship team. Competing in 13 national meets, Gallagher's teams reigned supreme 10 times and shared an 11th title. Along the way, they won 37 individual NCAA titles, 32 National AAU crowns, and three Olympic gold medals.

As one of the great coaches in the history of the sport, Edward Clark Gallagher is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1941-56

He always felt a coach should lead his wrestlers to championships, and Art Griffith lived up to that ideal. In 30 years of coaching, he took his teams to 77 tournaments and never left the scene without at least one gold medal.

Griffith's coaching career spanned two great dynasties, first for 15 years at Central High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and then for 13 seasons at Oklahoma State University. His records were fabulous.

His high school teams won 94 of 100 matches, 50 of them in a row, and 10 Oklahoma scholastic championships. A dozen times, his Braves were undefeated, and they won the only two national high school tournaments conducted.

Succeeding Edward C. Gallagher, he took the reins at Oklahoma State in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships in 13 attempts. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles.

When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948.

Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

Another lasting contribution was Griffith's development of the point scoring system for wrestling bouts, which in early days were determined only by falls or time advantage. Griffith served in many roles throughout his career, but the effect of his coaching greatness was most evident in 1941. Of the 16 National Collegiate finalists that year, all but two had been coached by Griffith either in high school or college.

For his legendary exploits as a wrestling coach, Art Griffith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

MYRON RODERICK

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1954-56/Head Coach, 1957-69

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 42 of 44 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion.

But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. And there was no interlude between his two careers. From national champion in 1956 to the new torch-bearer of the great Oklahoma State coaching tradition in 1957 was an abrupt but highly successful transition.

In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

His wrestlers won 20 individual NCAA titles and four gold medals in the Olympic Games. He also coached his teams to two National AAU championships, was the United States coach in the 1963 World Games and was assistant coach in the 1964 Olympics.

Roderick departed from tradition in one respect. He carried his personal intensity into a search for quality wrestlers and, more than any other man, introduced recruiting on a major scale into the sport of wrestling.

As the first executive director of the U. S. Wrestling Federation, he established the foundation of USA Wrestling, the sport's national governing body. He saw the need for a National Wrestling Hall of Fame and worked not only to bring the dream to life, but also to ensure its future.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and coach, and his lifelong leadership in the sport, Myron Willis Roderick is a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JACK VAN BEBBER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1929-31

He vanquished the nation's finest wrestlers seven times, but when Jack VanBebber set out to conquer the world, he had to hitch-hike. At the 1932 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, while awaiting his final bout for the gold medal, VanBebber suddenly learned that the time schedule had been altered and he was due on the mat within the hour, six miles away. No transportation was provided, or available, so he set out afoot. After two miles, a passing motorist gave him a ride to the arena.

Once at the scene, however, his opponent proved no more effective than his earlier victims. And "Blackjack" VanBebber became champion of the world with a decision over Eino Leino of Finland, a four-time Olympian who already owned gold, silver and bronze medals.

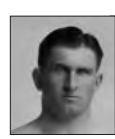
VanBebber was undefeated as a collegiate wrestler for Oklahoma State University in 1929, '30 and '31, winning three NCAA championships at 155 and 165 pounds. He captured National AAU titles his junior and senior years, then moved to Los Angeles in 1932 and won another.

The only defeat of his wrestling career came in an early round of the Olympic trials, but he rallied to win the trials and successfully defended his 158.5-pound assignment during final challenge bouts in Los Angeles. For more than 50 years he was the only American-born wrestler to win three NCAA titles and an Olympic gold medal.

VanBebber served four years in the infantry during World War II, three of them in the Pacific theater. He then joined the Phillips Petroleum Company for 39 years until his retirement, and taught wrestling to sons of company employees and to Boy Scouts.

In 1950, a national poll of U. S. coaches, officials and sports editors selected him as one of the country's top 10 amateur athletes in the first half of the 20th Century.

In recognition of his outstanding achievements as a competitor, Jack Francis VanBebber is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



EARL MCCREADY

Class of 1977
Wrestler, 1928-30

His nickname was "Moose" -maybe because of his home town in Saskatchewan, Canada, but more likely because of Earl McCready's stature as the first great heavyweight wrestler of the collegiate events.

International recruiting was unheard-of in the mid-1920s, but in 1926 Fendley Collins and two teammates from Oklahoma State drove to Vancouver and won the Canadian national freestyle tournament. They liked the looks of the strapping 220-pound youngster named McCready and talked him into following them back to their campus.

Under the guidance of Coach Edward C. Gallagher, he won every match for three years, all but three of them by falls. He was the anchor man, the cleanup hitter, for three undefeated championship teams. "We never worried if the match was close," one of his teammates recalls. "We knew Moose would get them, and he always did."

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

McCready wrestled in the first three NCAA tournaments in 1928-29-30, and won the championship each year, thus becoming the first three-time champion in collegiate history. It was 20 years before another heavyweight could match that. In the 1928 finals, he won by a fall in 19 seconds, still a record for an NCAA meet held under collegiate rules.

He also won four national freestyle championships, one in the United States and three in Canada, and represented Canada in the 1928 Olympic Games, carrying his country's banner in the opening ceremonies. He won a gold medal in the 1930 British Empire Games.

As a collegiate athlete, McCready was a three-year football letterman at guard, winning all-star honors in 1929.

He wrestled professionally for 28 years, including a match in the famed Royal Albert Hall in London. He was the first wrestler to demonstrate the sport on British television.

As a wrestler of great achievement, one who set the pattern for those who followed, Earl Gray McCready is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

ROSS FLOOD

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1933-35

One of his ancestors, Daniel Boone, was a fair-to-middlin' sharpshooter, and when Ross Flood went hunting for wrestling championships his aim was just as good.

At Blackwell, Ross and his brother John became the first twins to win Oklahoma high school championships. Then Ross pursued his wrestling career at Oklahoma State University under Coach Edward C. Gallagher.

Undefeated in 30 matches at 126 pounds, he won three National Collegiate championships in 1933, '34 and '35, each time leading the Cowboys to NCAA team honors. As a senior he was voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament.

His achievements continued to mount when he won National AAU championships in 1935 and '36 and another outstanding wrestler trophy. He then earned a place on the U. S. Olympic team and captured the silver medal at 123 pounds in the Berlin Games.

In the 1937 Pan American Exposition at Dallas, he won the gold medal at the expense of three other national champions, despite severe rib injuries which brought an end to his competitive career.

For six years he was a successful high school coach in Stillwater, then entered the Navy to spend five years as a physical instructor, including wartime service in the Pacific theater. He returned to coaching in 1946 to revive the wrestling program at Southwestern Oklahoma State, then purchased a livestock auction in Stillwater, which he operated for three decades.

Billy Sheridan, the famed Lehigh coach, often declared that Ross Flood provided the best example he had ever seen of wrestling skills and techniques.

In recognition of his tremendous achievements as a wrestling champion, Aaron Ross Flood is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

STANLEY HENSON

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1937-39

In the never-ending debate over who has been America's greatest wrestler, the name of Stanley Henson always receives plenty of support. His record as a competitor speaks for itself.

Henson's career was blessed by the leadership of two Hall of Fame coaches. At Tulsa Central High School, under Art Griffith, he wrestled two years, won two state championships and the outstanding wrestler award as a senior.

Then he joined the Oklahoma State University team of Edward C. Gallagher. Defeated only once in three seasons, Henson won three NCAA championships and each time led the Cowboys to the team title.

In 1937, he became the first sophomore to be voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament. He continued to excel the next two years, but the nation's coaches were not yet ready to present their cherished award to any man a second time. He also won the Pan American Exposition in 1937 and scored a 1938 double with the National AAU freestyle title. As his junior year drew to a close with two championships, Henson already was thinking more of medical school than of wrestling.

During a European tour in the fall of 1938, he suffered a severe shoulder injury which hampered him during his senior year but couldn't prevent a third NCAA title, this one at 155 pounds after two at 145.

After five years as a physical instructor and wrestling assistant at the Naval Academy, Henson was able to concentrate fully on the study of medicine, completing his degree in 1950 at the University of Maryland.

A highly respected surgeon, he was one of the first to combine his athletic and medical interests in the rapidly growing field of sports medicine, where he became a nationally known lecturer and consultant.

As a dominant figure in the sport of wrestling and a continuing example of the qualities of self-discipline, sportsmanship and integrity, Dr. Stanley Willard Henson Jr. is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DOUG BLUBAUGH

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1955-57

In the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Doug Blubaugh battled the world champion from Iran for the Olympic gold medal. Emamali Habibi had never known defeat.

Three times the Persian attacked, each time throwing the young American into danger. Then a swift counterattack from Blubaugh hurled his opponent to his back ... suddenly the struggle was ended.

Thus did an Oklahoma farm boy reach the apex of a brilliant athletic career, earning the 1960 Olympic gold medal at 160.5 pounds, and with it recognition as the outstanding wrestler in the world.

Doug Blubaugh was no stranger to the role of champion. He won NCAA honors for Oklahoma State in 1957 and National AAU Freestyle titles in 1957, when he was named outstanding wrestler, and 1959.

A year before his Olympic conquest, he won a gold medal in the 1959 Pan American Games at Chicago, matching the 1955 achievement of his brother, Jack. They were the first brothers to capture Pan Am titles.

Blubaugh is remembered, too, for his epic struggles with a former college teammate, Phil Kinyon. Over four years of Freestyle competition, they met 13 times. The first 12 bouts ended in draws, 11 scoreless. Five of these were in the 1960 Olympic trials, before Blubaugh crashed through for the takedown and victory that sent him on to Olympic glory.

From a competitive career totaling more than 400 victories against just 17 defeats, Blubaugh turned to coaching and won added respect for his teaching skills and his honesty and dedication. After seven years as an assistant at Michigan State, during which he was Freestyle coach of U. S. teams in the 1971 Pan American Games and World Championships, he spent a decade as head coach at Indiana University.

As a champion athlete of awesome achievement, and as a living example to young men of the highest standards of character and integrity, Douglas Morlan Blubaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

FRANK LEWIS

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1933-35

As a tall, skinny college freshman, Frank Lewis was "a little tired" after six years of wrestling and planned to give full attention to his studies at Oklahoma State University.

But he needed a physical education credit and a wrestling class would provide an easy grade. Members of the class were required to compete in the all-college intramurals and when he failed to win the championship his pride was stung. He decided to concentrate on wrestling again.

Frank Lewis concentrated so well that he became a national champion and the gold medalist in the 1936 Olympic Games at Berlin.

A state high school champ and four-time medalist from 100 to 155 pounds, he possessed the raw talent from which coach Edward C. Gallagher could mold a winner. But because of his rapid growth, the youngster didn't have the stamina to wrestle the longer college matches. And because of a minor heart condition, his coach had to devise a special training routine to build stamina without putting a strain on his health.

Despite these difficulties, he established a collegiate record of 45-5, winning the NCAA title in 1935 after placing second the year before. Both years he contributed vital points to the Cowboys' team trophies.

In 1935, he won the National AAU crown and became the first contestant to be officially recognized as outstanding wrestler of a National AAU tournament, receiving a gold watch for this honor. A year later, he swept undefeated through the series of Olympic trials, then defended his position against his alternate on the boat to Europe.

In the Games, he scored a fall the first day, another the second day. He wrestled three times the third day, but stamina no longer was a problem and two more falls offset a narrow loss to Tur Andersson of Sweden as Frank Lewis became the only American to win a championship.

As a wrestler of ultimate achievement and a lifelong example of perseverance and dedication to goals, Frank Wiatt Lewis is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

JOE MCDANIEL

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1937-39

He was destined to be an Olympic champion, but the Games of the XII Olympiad were engulfed in the holocaust of World War II. So Joe McDaniel had to settle merely for recognition as the outstanding wrestler of the world.

Three times he was a National Collegiate winner for Oklahoma State University, each year leading the Cowboys of Coach Edward C. Gallagher to the team trophy. As a 118-pound junior, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the 1938 tournament, an honor won a year earlier by his roommate, Stanley Henson. Three times he reigned as National AAU champion, twice as a collegian when the Cowboys also won team honors, and again in 1941, two years after graduation.

McDaniel's only serious exposure to international competition came at the close of his junior year, in a 1938 European tour climaxed by a tournament at Stockholm, Sweden, among the leading wrestling nations of the world. He was undefeated in 12 bouts and scored an overwhelming victory over Odon Zombori of Hungary, winner of the Olympic gold two years earlier.

Despite a three-year hitch in the Air Corps and seven years as field representative for a major steel firm, McDaniel never has been far from the sport of wrestling.

After a year of high school coaching and another at Maryland, he returned from the war to coach 11 years at Syracuse University, leading the Orange to a fourth place national finish. In 1963, he moved to Wyoming, coaching two years in high school and eight at the University.

His career turned full circle in 1973, when he returned to his home town of Sulphur, Oklahoma, to serve as high school coach. In 30 years of coaching at all levels, his record was 257 victories against 105 defeats.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and his long years of service to the sport, Joe Clark McDaniel is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

YOJIRO UETAKE

Class of 1980
Wrestler, 1964-66

After winning the national high school championship of Japan, he came to the United States to complete his education. By the time Yojiro Uetake returned to his native land, he had given a whole generation of American wrestlers an education in winning technique.

He won all 58 of his collegiate matches for Oklahoma State University and three Big Eight Conference titles. Three times a NCAA champion, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the NCAA tournament as a junior and again as a senior.

After his sophomore year of competition in 1964, "Yo-Jo" returned home to Japan to win the Olympic gold medal in Tokyo. Four years later, in Mexico City, he repeated this achievement and became the first Japanese wrestler ever to win two championships in the Olympic Games.

He was the complete wrestler, blending speed, strength and unparalleled skills to dominate all areas of the sport-takedowns, control, escapes and falls. Seldom did any opponent score offensive points against him.

"I don't know how good he was," said his collegiate coach, Myron Roderick. "because I never saw him challenged."

Such was the range of his ability that every match became a small "clinic" in itself, attracting coaches and rival contestants from all parts of the arena to learn from his masterful techniques.

While preparing for his second Olympic crown, he spent two years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State, then returned home to become Japan's national freestyle coach. He guided his country's wrestlers into the 1972 Olympics at Munich and the 1976 Games at Montreal.

Upon his marriage, he took the surname of his wife's family, Obata. As an athlete of awesome skills and ultimate achievement, Yojiro Uetake Obata is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DAVID "BUDDY" ARNDT

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1941-46

Is it possible for a champion to walk away from the mat for three full years and return to compete at the same high level? Buddy Arndt did just that and became the only wrestler to win National Collegiate championships on both sides of World War II.

His only coach in wrestling, Hall of Famer Art Griffith, was a man who hated to lose. With that leadership in both high school and college, and his own exceptional ability, Arndt never met defeat. He won every match in three years at Tulsa Central High School and two state championships, missing one state meet because of illness. As a sophomore at Oklahoma State, he captured his first NCAA title at 145 pounds and won all six bouts in the National AAU tournament, only to settle for second place under the international scoring rules.

But as a junior, in 1942, Arndt was clearly the nation's best wrestler, sweeping National Collegiate and AAU honors and earning the outstanding wrestler trophy in both tournaments. Both seasons he competed a full class above his normal weight to make room in the Aggie lineup for another national champion.

But athletics then were overshadowed by the war and Arndt spent the next three years as a P-38 fighter pilot, flying more than 100 combat missions over Italy with the 15th Air Corps. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with four clusters and also collected six Bronze Battle Stars for action in major battles.

He returned to college after the war, this time competing at his natural weight of 136 pounds, won his third NCAA championship and, for the third time, led the Aggies to the team trophy.

As a man who excelled in the battles of sport, and in the far greater struggles of real life, David B. Arndt is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

CONRAD CALDWELL

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1929-31

He won the National Collegiate championship in only the fifth bout he ever wrestled. But that NCAA title was just the beginning of Conrad Caldwell's spectacular career.

He did not compete in wrestling at Commerce, Oklahoma, High School and indeed had never seen the sport until he enrolled at Oklahoma State, where Hall of Fame coach Edward C. Gallagher recruited him from a gym class and promised to turn him into a national champion.

His pre-tournament experience consisted of two matches as a substitute heavyweight. Then in three bouts as a 165-pounder in the 1929 NCAA meet, he fulfilled Coach Gallagher's prophecy. He repeated, at 175 pounds, in 1930 and '31 to become only the third wrestler to win three collegiate crowns.

Caldwell was a standout amid an awesome array of Aggie talent that included teammates Earl McCready, Jack VanBebber, Bobby Pearce and LeRoy McGuirk. One night in 1931, Caldwell applied the finishing touches to a dual meet victory over Kansas State that required only 19 minutes, 33 seconds of wrestling by the entire team.

In 1932, he moved to California and competed five years for the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The only defeat of his career came in the first round of the 1932 Olympic trials. He came back to win the trials at 191 pounds, only to see another wrestler chosen in his place for the Games.

Through 1936, Caldwell was unbeaten from 174 pounds through heavyweight-and on one occasion, all three weights at one time. In a 1933 dual meet with UCLA, he weighed in at 174 but found his teammates at 191 and heavyweight were absent. He pinned the UCLA 174 pounder, won a decision at 191 and after a 10-minute struggle pinned the heavyweight, an all-Coast football tackle.

In recognition of his achievements as one of wrestling's pioneer champions, Conrad C. Caldwell is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

BOBBY PEARCE

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1930-32

He took up wrestling as a youngster to strengthen himself physically in a constant struggle with allergies. But despite his frail physique, Bobby Pearce won championships at all levels.

The coach at Cushing, Oklahoma, High School, Matt Berg, allowed him to join the squad despite some misgivings. Pearce rewarded him with three undefeated seasons and three state championships. As a high school senior, he reached the semifinals of the 1928 Olympic trials.

Then he joined the awesome array of talent at Oklahoma State, helping extend the winning streak of coach Edward C. Gallagher's Aggies to 70 consecutive matches. Over-all, during his collegiate days, he won 60 bouts, lost four and tied one.

A fast and aggressive wrestler, Pearce liked to go for the quick fall, and once flattened his opponent in just 11 seconds.

Pearce was National AAU champion in 1930 and '31, won the NCAA title in 1931 and was runner-up in 1932. Although he was upset in the collegiate finals as a senior, he responded with the ultimate triumph, winning the gold medal in the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles, first ever for an Oklahoma wrestler.

Although only a 126-pounder, he competed professionally for five years and at the same time turned his hand to coaching. He guided Cushing to the state high school championship in 1933 and coached a YMCA team for two years before embarking on a professional career in refinery engineering.

He returned to coaching briefly 20 years later at Mesa College in Colorado, leading that team to two undefeated seasons and a conference championship.

As a champion of great achievement and success over physical difficulties, Robert Edward Pearce is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

SHELBY WILSON

Class of 1982
Wrestler, 1957-59

To become a champion, an athlete must set a goal. Shelby Wilson not only set a goal, but he pursued it through disappointments and distractions until he scaled the ultimate championship heights.

As a high school wrestler in Ponca City, Oklahoma, he won three conference championships and suffered only three defeats -all in the state meet, two of them in the finals. At Oklahoma State, after an injury cut short one season, he captured two Big Eight titles and twice charged to the national finals-only to suffer disheartening defeats both times.

Even his journey to the 1960 Olympics was difficult. After an upset loss in the trials, he started the final challenge in the middle of the freestyle ladder. First, he threw the Greco champion to assure a trip to Rome. He then captured the Freestyle ticket by fighting off the challengers below him, and turning the tables on the top-ranked wrestler.

And in the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Shelby Wilson earned the Olympic gold medal. The road was long, with many detours, but he had attained his goal.

"Without a goal, an athlete isn't really going to struggle to achieve," he said. "Whether or not he wins a victory, the struggle, the discipline, the battle with adversity give him the championship qualities he needs for success in life."

Shelby Wilson had a hobby of "repairing anything that's broken." Growing up on a farm, he learned the value of keeping the land and the equipment in condition. During 13 years of high school and college coaching, and then as the founder and director of the Stronghold Youth Foundation, he transferred those values to human needs. An ordained minister with a love of people, he worked on their behalf with the same dedication that he once devoted to pursuit of a wrestling goal.

As an athlete of ultimate achievement and as a humanitarian of exceptional stature, Shelby Autrie Wilson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

GUY LOOKABAUGH

Class of 1983
Wrestler, 1919-21

As the first superstar of Oklahoma State University athletics, Guy Lookabaugh helped establish a wrestling dynasty that spanned half a century. He earned headlines in football, but in wrestling was recognized as one of the greatest athletes of his time. Lookabaugh enrolled in 1917 and immediately became a football hero. He enlisted in the Army, but returned after the war to become known as the first "Super Aggie."

In 1920, coach Ed Gallagher's wrestlers made a bid for national recognition, facing a mighty Nebraska team undefeated for five years. With his team trailing, Lookabaugh took the mat at 158 pounds and battled his way through a 27-minute overtime match for a difficult decision. In the final bout, the Aggies had victory within reach, but had no one to send against Nebraska's unbeaten 175-pound star. Coach Gallagher again called upon Lookabaugh, who responded with a "regulation" 21-minute decision to give the Oklahomans their first major wrestling triumph.

Lookabaugh, nicknamed "Ducky," never lost a college match. His career preceded the NCAA tournaments, but in 1921 he won championships of three conferences-the Missouri Valley (Big Eight), Western (Big Ten) and Southwest. His flamboyant style was evident in his first big Freestyle tournament. Facing Eino Leino, a Finn who would win four Olympic medals, Lookabaugh threw him out of the ring and pinned him on the floor. The referee ruled it an illegal fall.

Lookabaugh turned to coaching in 1922-23, but returned to school to train for the 1924 Olympics. He reached the finals at Paris, only to lose an unpopular split decision. He coached three years at Kansas and helped Dr. R.G. Clapp formulate rules for the first NCAA tournament in 1928. He coached at Northeastern Oklahoma and Grinnell of Iowa until 1940.

In recognition of his monumental athletic achievements and his influence on the lives of young people for more than half a century, Guy Howard Lookabaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

BOBBY DOUGLAS

Class of 1987
Wrestler, 1965

The Making of a Champion is the title of his book, and it also is the pattern of Bobby Douglas' life. From a small town in eastern Ohio, and a small college in West Virginia, he rose to become a dominant athlete of the 1960s, earning national and international acclaim.

He won two state high school titles, and was All-State in football and baseball. He emerged on the national scene as 1962 NAIA champion for West Liberty State. A year later, he reached the NCAA finals, and his 13-8 duel with the defending champion from a larger school was a classic. Transferring to Oklahoma State, he won the Big Eight, but was knocked out of the 1965 nationals by injury, closing his collegiate career at 72-2.

It was in the international styles where Douglas earned worldwide renown, for his knowledge of the sport and his technical skills ... which he later would share with another generation as coach, author and clinician. He won three national Freestyle titles and represented the United States on two Olympic teams, placing fourth in 1964, and six World teams, winning a silver, a bronze and a fourth place. He was captain of the '68 Olympic team and his career record was 303 victories, 17 defeats.

He became head wrestling coach at Santa Barbara in 1973. A year later, he moved to Arizona State, which he led to the only NCAA team trophy won by a western school. Douglas also launched the Sunkist Kids club on a long series of national Freestyle championships. He moved on to Iowa State and maintained its great tradition. He was an assistant coach for 10 World and Olympic Teams, was World Cup coach in 1987 and Olympic coach in 1992.

He was the first black American to wrestle in the Olympics, the first to captain our Olympic team, and the first to coach wrestling at a major university. He showed, by example, that others could reach such goals.

As a wrestler of notable achievement, and as an outstanding teacher and leader, Bobby Eddie Douglas is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

TOMMY CHESBRO

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1959-60/Head Coach 1970-84

When he returned to Oklahoma State University as only its fourth head wrestling coach, Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed by not one, but three Hall of Famers.

But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors.

From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats, a 90 per cent winning record. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach.

Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 20 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

In 1992, while serving as the university's director of athletic facilities, Chesbro scored a memorable "post-career" coaching victory. Interim coaches Smith and Monday were away, training for the Olympic Games, so Chesbro led the Cowboys into a match against arch rival Oklahoma. Their 43-0 victory was largest margin in the 72-year history of wrestling's storied Bedlam Series.

Chesbro was a state high school champion wrestler and a starter on Oklahoma State's 1959 NCAA championship team. In eight years as a high school coach, he had a record of 51-23-8, bringing his victory total to 278. His teams won one state title and twice were runners-up.

For his success in carrying on the rich tradition of a great collegiate wrestling program, Tommy Edward Chesbro is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DICK HUTTON

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1947-50

He was an imposing physical specimen striding across the Oklahoma prairie, and Dick Hutton reigned over the nation's collegiate heavyweights like few men before or since.

He was the cornerstone upon which coach Art Griffith rebuilt the Oklahoma State program when wrestling resumed after World War II. Hutton suffered only one loss and one draw in four years of varsity competition. That one defeat, a controversial referee's decision in the 1949 NCAA finals against light-heavyweight champion Verne Gagne, kept Hutton from becoming the sport's first four-time collegiate king.

He won titles in 1947, '48 and '50, and was a member of two national championship teams. His four appearances in the national finals-three of them successful--established a record that was unmatched for 28 years and unbroken until 44 years later.Hutton placed sixth in the 1948 Olympic Games after being slowed by an injury in his second bout.

After five years in the U. S. Army, he competed 10 years in professional wrestling, winning the heavyweight belt from Lou Thesz in 1957 and holding it for two years. Contrary to the usual professional image, he became known for his honest, gimmick-free wrestling.

In later years, Hutton owned and operated a thoroughbred and quarterhorse racing and breeding ranch in Texas.

In recognition of his dominance of collegiate wrestling throughout a fabulous career, Richard Heron Avis Hutton is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOHN SMITH

Class of 1997
Wrestler, 1984-88/Head Coach 1991-present

Over a six-year span, which started while he was still a student at Oklahoma State, John Smith was the best wrestler in the world. He now ranks alongside other Distinguished Members whose names emerge in any discussion of "the greatest American wrestler ever."

Although that distinction is arguable, Smith's career record is not. Partly because of opportunity, but primarily because of skill, it is beyond comparison. From 1986 through 1992, Smith won:

:: Two Olympic gold medals. He was the first American to do so in 80 years, and both of his golds came against the world's best.
:: Four World titles. No other American has won more than three.
:: Six consecutive world-class championships. No other American has won more than two in a row.
:: Two gold medals in the Pan American Games, in two attempts.
:: Two gold medals in the Goodwill Games, in two attempts.
:: Five national Freestyle championships, in five attempts.
:: Two NCAA crowns and 90 consecutive collegiate victories.
:: He became the first wrestler to be voted the James E. Sullivan Award as America's outstanding athlete, the first American to be chosen Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA), and the first wrestler ever nominated for the World Trophy, which he received in 1992.

Smith's international record was 100-5, and his domestic freestyle record was 77-3. Combined with his collegiate totals of 154-7-2 and his high school marks of 105-5, he competed 458 times for his school, club, or country and won 436 times, for a success rate above 95 per cent.

Smith retired from competition after the Olympics in Barcelona and two years later coached Oklahoma State to the NCAA team title.

One of the greatest athletes of the Twentieth Century, John William Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOE SEAY

Class of 1998
Head Coach, 1985-91

After leading his teams at Cal State-Bakersfield and Oklahoma State to a total of nine NCAA championships, Joe Seay then coached the USA to milestone victories in the Goodwill Games, World Championships and Olympic Games.

A 1964 graduate of Kansas State, Seay wrestled there three years and later won three national Greco-Roman crowns while placing second twice in Freestyle.

But it was as a coach at all levels that he earned lasting renown.

Starting with eight years at Bakersfield South High in California, he compiled a record of 177-12-2 and was national high school Coach of the Year. Moving across town to Cal State, he coached a dozen years and won seven Division II national championships with a record of 189-56-2. At Oklahoma State, from 1985 to '92, he went 114-8-2 with back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90.

His folkstyle record adds up to 480 victories and an .859 winning percentage. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles in both divisions, and he was named national Coach of the Year five times.

When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1992, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships.

He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

As a coach who has left an indelible mark on all levels of the sport, Joe Van Seay is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

KENNY MONDAY

Class of 2001
Wrestler, 1981-84

No matter what the calendar said, when he stepped onto a mat it was always "MON-day night!" Poise, patience and mental toughness propelled Kenny Monday to Olympic gold in 1988, silver in 1992 and sixth in 1996. He made winning a habit and wrestling a pleasure to watch.

At Booker T. Washington, Kenny's coach characterized his passage from "scrawny to awesome," as Monday chalked up an almost unblemished record of 140-0-1. He amassed four state high school championships at four different weights, tucking in a 1977 Junior Nationals title along the way. In seven trips to the Junior Olympics, he won five times.

At Oklahoma State University, the 150-pounder became a teammate of the only wrestler to tie him in high school duals, a fierce competitor named Mike Sheets. At OSU, Kenny ran up a career record of 121-12-2. Twice a runner-up, Monday captured an NCAA title in 1984. He ranked second on OSU's all-time list for falls. In 1986, he won the National Wrestling Hall of Fame Classic and took both the Sunkist International Open and the World Cup the following year.

International victories came at the 1988 Tblisi Tournament, the 1989 World Championships, the 1991 Pan American Games and the President's Cup in Turkey, the 1992 Roger Coulon in France and the 1996 Dan Kolov Tournament in Bulgaria. At the grueling Tblisi in Soviet Georgia, he was honored with the prized animal-skin cloak as the Outstanding Wrestler. One American coach summed up the Tblisi as "probably five times as tough" as the Olympics. O.W. honors also went to Kenny in 1989 and 1990 at the Grand Masters Tournament.

Four times Kenny posted wins at the U.S. National Championships and also captured the 1989 U.S. Olympic Festival crown. His 1988 Olympic Games success brought Monday the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year award, as well as the Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year in 1989.

For his dual achievements as a stellar wrestler at every level and for his encouragement of youth wrestling, Kenny Monday is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

KENDALL CROSS

Class of 2002
Wrestler, 1987-90

It has been said on several occasions that Kendall Cross was destined to become an Olympic Champion. But to realize that prediction would take one of the most wide-open, exciting styles of competition ever seen in American wrestling -- the Kendall Cross style.

After completing his high school career in Mustang, Oklahoma, by winning a state championship, Kendall went on to Oklahoma State University where he became a three-time All-American and the 1989 NCAA champion. His first success at the international level came in 1988 when he became the Espoir World Cup Champion, setting the stage for his pursuit of the Olympic gold.

In 1992, he was the only freestyle wrestler on the American Olympic Team who was not ranked number one at his weight at the beginning of the year. He finished sixth at the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games.

The road to the Olympic gold would be no easier in 1996. His championship series with Terry Brands at the Olympic Trials in Spokane, Washington, treated American fans to one of the most spectacular displays of wrestling ever seen in this country. His victory at the trials sent him on to the Atlanta Olympic Games where his dominating effort provided one of the most inspiring gold medal performances in memory.

In 1997, he was named the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, while in 1992 and 1995 he was declared the Outstanding Freestyle Wrestler at the U. S. Nationals where he became a three time national champion.

Cross continues to be a role model for young wrestlers and an impressive representative of our sport. He has developed the Kendall Cross Gold Medal Wrestling Club in the Boston area, designed to aid in the development of young, aspiring wrestlers. For his achievements as an athlete and for his continued representation of the sport of wrestling to the youth of America, Kendall Cross is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

J ROBINSON

Class of 2005
Wrestler, 1966-68

J Robinson's competitive spirit and "give it your all" attitude immerged during his days as a prep wrestler in California. A two-time SDIF Champion (1963 & 1964); he was named Most Outstanding Wrestler in 1964. His flair for international competition and being on the "cutting edge of the sport" began when be became a member of the inaugural California International Team. Competing in Japan, the pioneer team paved the way for young wrestlers of the future.

In the next years, Robinson made his mark in not just one style of wrestling, but three. He honed his collegiate style skills under the instruction of the legendary coach, Myron Roderick at Oklahoma State University. Shifting his focus to the International arena, he was a member of two World teams, finishing fourth in 1970 and fifth in 1971. He competed as a member of the 1972 Greco-Roman Olympic Team. During this time, he won four National titles; two in Freestyle and two in Greco-Roman.

With his three style background, he began his coaching career at the University of Iowa. As an assistant coach, Robinson helped propel the team to an amazing nine national championships in 12 years. In 1984, as interim coach, he led the Hawkeyes to another NCAA title and a Big Ten Championship. In 1986 he was named Head Coach of the University of Minnesota. With one goal in mind, they won back to back NCAA Championships (2001 & 2002). His teams also captured four Big Ten Championships and three NWCA National Duals titles. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2001, and was named Big Ten Coach of the Year five times.

While sharing his skills on the collegiate level, he also continued to share his expertise with athletes in freestyle competitions. He was selected as the head coach for the Pan American Games in 1983 and served as an assistant coach for the Olympics in 1976, 1980, 1984, and 1988.

In recognition of his dynamic contributions to the sport of wrestling, J Robinson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

PAT SMITH

Class of 2006
Wrestler, 1990-94

Pat Smith made wrestling history when he became the first wrestler to win four NCAA Division I national championships. Competing for Oklahoma State University, he captured titles in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994, all at 158 pounds, and spurred the Cowboys to team titles in 1990 and 1994.

The year he won his record fourth national crown, he was named the NCAA's Outstanding Wrestler. He also became only the third OSU wrestler to win four Big Eight Conference championships.

Smith ended his college wrestling career with a mark of 121-5-2 and set the school record for consecutive matches without a loss with 98 straight victories.

Smith was named the 1994 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year and was one of just 15 athletes named to the NCAA 75th Anniversary Wrestling Team. He was inducted into the Oklahoma State Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

His successful freestyle wrestling career included a bronze medal in the 1997 World Cup, a second-place finish to three-time Olympian Kenny Monday at the 1996 Trials; gold medal performances at two U.S. Olympic Festivals; and six All-American finishes at the U.S. National Open Freestyle Championships. He also won USA Wrestling national titles on the Espoir and Junior levels.

As an Oklahoma State University assistant wrestling coach for 11 years, he personally coached six Cowboys to individual or multiple NCAA titles and helped OSU to win the Division I team title for four consecutive years from 2003-2006.

Smith won three state titles for Del City High School and was twice named Outstanding Wrestler of the tournament. He is a member of one of the nation's top wrestling families -- brothers Lee Roy, John and Mark were also state high school champions and earned All-America honors for OSU.

For inspiring others and accomplishing what no competitor before had ever done, Patrick M. Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

FRED FOZZARD

Class of 2012
Wrestler, 1966-68

The United States had been shut out of gold medals at the World Championships and the Olympic Games for eight consecutive years after the 1960 Olympics, but two Oregonians were about to make wrestling history in 1969. Fred Fozzard and fellow Distinguished Member Rick Sanders laid the groundwork for future generations of American wrestlers.

No American wrestler had ever won a World title when Sanders and Fozzard struck gold at the 1969 freestyle World Championships in Mar Del Plata, Argentina. Fozzard's path to the 180.5 pound gold medal, however, seemed unlikely. At age two he contracted polio which shrunk his right arm and left him with no grip and no working thumb. Fozzard developed a unique wrestling style to overcome this disability, which eventually led to numerous championship victories.

Fozzard followed his victory in 1969 with a solid fifth-place finish at the 1970 World Championships. Prior to his arrival on the international scene, Fozzard was an integral part of Oklahoma State's wrestling dynasty. As a sophomore, Fozzard placed second at the 1966 NCAA tournament at 177 lbs., helping the Cowboys to the team title. Fozzard returned as a junior and won the 1967 NCAA tournament as the top seed, which included two pins and a dominant 10-3 win in the finals.

As a senior, the Cowboy standout from Oregon entered the 1968 NCAA tournament undefeated and as the top seed, but he suffered a loss to the eventual champion in the semifinals. Showing his resiliency through adversity, Fozzard stormed back with two pins in the consolation round to place third. His bonus point wins ultimately gave Oklahoma State the team championship in 1968. Fozzard's final collegiate record was 55-4-3.

Fozzard continued his career as an assistant coach for his alma mater from 1968 through 1972. He was the head wrestling coach at Kansas State from 1973 through 1975 and an assistant coach at Portland State from 1975 to 1977. He was also heavily involved in the Southern Oregon program, a highly successful team that competes in the NAIA.For his historic achievements that led the way for future American wrestlers, Fred Fozzard is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

ERIC GUERRERO

Class of 2014
Wrestler, 1996-99

In a college wrestling program known for producing champions, Eric Guerrero will be remembered as one of the best.

Hailing from San Jose, Calif., Guerrero won three state wrestling championships and compiled an impressive 226-4 high school record. He won a national high school championship, a Junior National championship in 1995, and a Cadet World championship in 1993. The California prep standout chose to take his talents to wrestling's most storied program, Oklahoma State University.

Guerrero was nothing short of spectacular during his four seasons with the Cowboys. As a true freshman, he placed fifth at the 1996 NCAA Wrestling Championships. The following season, as a 19-year-old sophomore, Guerrero won the 126-pound weight class, and he would repeat the victory in 1998. Despite moving up to 133 pounds in 1999, he became Oklahoma State's 14th three-time NCAA champion. Guerrero also won a Big 12 title in 1999 and was a two-time academic All-American. His career college record was 117-13.

After college, Guerrero continued to compete internationally in freestyle, where he showed no signs of slowing down. Shortly after his final college match, he represented the United States at the 1999 World Championships. Guerrero won four U.S. Open titles, made three more World teams (2001–2003), and won a World Cup title in 2003.

Then in 2004, Guerrero represented the United States at 132 pounds in freestyle wrestling during the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

After retiring from competition, Guerrero turned his focus to coaching at his alma mater, Oklahoma State. He served as strength and conditioning coach (2001-2004) and as assistant coach (2004-2012). In 2012, Guerrero was named the associate head wrestling coach. During his coaching career, he led nine wrestlers to 14 individual NCAA championships, and four-straight NCAA team championships (2003-2006).

In recognition of competitive and coaching success at one of college wrestling's leading programs, Eric Guerrero is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

BILL HARLOW

Class of 2016
Wrestler, 1963-66

Thought to be the best wrestler ever to come from Tennessee and one of the greatest big men to wrestle at Oklahoma State University, William B. Harlow was a state champion, a three-time NCAA finalist and a three-time national freestyle champion.

When he arrived at Oklahoma State, however, he felt as though he had a lot of catching up to do technically and spent his years in Stillwater as a "human sponge" absorbing everything he could learn. With Distinguished Members Yojiro Uetake, Bobby Douglas, and Gene Davis as teammates during his collegiate career, learning opportunities were scattered throughout the wrestling room. He quickly gained a reputation as a slick and smooth wrestler, using technique rarely seen in a man of his size.

Harlow finished second in his first trip to the NCAA finals as a sophomore in 1964. As a junior, he won the Big Eight Conference title, but again finished as runner-up in the national tournament. Finally, as a senior, he moved up to 191 pounds and compiled a 21-0-1 record and won both the Big Eight and NCAA championships. With Uetake and Davis, he led OSU to the national team title, the second of his tenure as a Cowboy. Overall, he finished his collegiate career with a record of 54-5-2.

Harlow began his wrestling career as an eighth grader, competing for the high school team at St. Andrews School in Sewanee, Tenn. Over five years, he lost only one match and, as a senior in 1962, won the national prep championship, the state championship and his fifth Mid-South championship, earning Outstanding Wrestler honors at all three tournaments.

After leaving Oklahoma State, he concentrated on freestyle, winning three national titles, including being named Outstanding Wrestler in 1974. He represented the USA at the 1970 World Championships in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and won a silver medal, falling in the 90 kg. finals to Soviet Gennady Strakhov.

As he continued to train and compete, he began a high school coaching career that would last for almost 50 years, beginning in Illinois. He returned to Oklahoma, coaching at Broken Arrow High School for 16 years while teaching and working as an administrator. He was principal and wrestling coach for three years at Kellyville, Okla., High School before serving eight years in Alaska as an administrator and wrestling coach. He returned to Oklahoma to teach and coach at Sapulpa High School until his retirement in 2013.

Harlow received the Lifetime Service to Wrestling award from the Oklahoma Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2005. In 2010, he was presented The Gallagher Award, given annually to an OSU wrestling alumnus who exemplifies the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions.

In recognition of his achievements as both a wrestler and a coach, William B. Harlow is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

RANDY COUTURE

Class of 2018
Wrestler, 1989-92

Former Oklahoma State wrestler Randy Couture was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as the organization's Outstanding American for 2018.

"Randy Couture's selection as Outstanding American by the National Wrestling Hall of Fame is the first time an Oklahoma State wrestler has received that honor," head coach John Smith said. "I'm very proud of Randy and it's been fun watching him excel at everything he's done. He's a great wrestler, but you can see through his accomplishments in many different fields why he was chosen to receive this recognition."

The Hall of Outstanding Americans demonstrates wrestling's pride in those who have used the disciplines of the sport to launch notable careers in other walks of life, such as science and technology, business and industry, government and the military, and the arts and humanities. New classes are inducted annually.

"Randy Couture epitomizes our Outstanding American award, which recognizes those who used wrestling to launch notable careers after concluding their wrestling careers," said Lee Roy Smith, Executive Director of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame. "Randy served in the military and then was an All-American at Oklahoma State. He competed internationally in Greco-Roman and then was one of the original mixed martial arts champions. He then stepped onto another stage, literally, as an actor and continues to evolve as an entrepreneur."

A Lynnwood, Wash., product, Couture wrestled at Oklahoma State from 1989 to 1992 and racked up a 113-42 overall record. He was a three-time All-American, including a pair of second-place finishes, and helped the Cowboys to the team title in 1990. Couture was a National Wrestling Coaches Association First-Team Academic All-American in 1991 and 1992, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in foreign language and literature.

Couture was a four-time World Team member in Greco-Roman and placed ninth in 1997. He was a six-time UFC world champion and was the only competitor to hold titles in both the heavyweight and light heavyweight divisions. Couture became the fourth fighter inducted into the UFC Hall of Fame in 2006, and was inducted into the Oklahoma State College of Arts & Sciences Hall of Fame in 2016.

Couture has his own chain of gyms, Xtreme Couture MMA, and a clothing line, Xtreme Couture MMA Clothing. He also founded and runs the Xtreme Couture GI Foundation, which raises awareness and financially supports wounded veterans. Couture teamed with Jay Glazer of Fox Sports and Green Beret and NFL player Nate Boyer to create Merging Vets and Players (MVP), which is a program designed to address challenges that many combat veterans and professional athletes face when transitioning their service/professional life towards a new mission in their civilian life. He and Glazer also created MMAthletics, which trains professional athletes from various sports in the ways of mixed martial arts and how that training can be applied to their respective sports.

GALLAGHER AWARD

Beginning in 1986, the Gallagher Award has been given out to 32 individuals who have exemplified the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions.

The award is the highest honor an OSU alumnus can earn from the Cowboy wrestling program for their dedication to the sport of wrestling after the end of their college career.

The list of recipients includes some of the sport's and program's legends, including Kenny Monday, Pat Smith, Bobby Douglas, Myron Roderick and John Smith.

2022's Gallagher Award winner, J Robinson, is the latest addition to the exclusive group that is accountable for 32 individual national championships, 65 All-American honors, 13 Olympic appearances with six gold medalists and 13 members of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Robinson wrestled for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968 compiling a 20-15 record over the span of his career, but it's his legacy after leaving Stillwater that will be remembered in the sport of wrestling.

After graduating from Oklahoma State in 1969, Robinson attended Airborne, Ranger and Jungle Warfare School before being deployed to Vietnam. Following his service, he returned to the United States where he wrestled for the Army and won four national titles, two in freestyle and two in Greco-Roman. He also made two World teams and competed at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich in Greco.

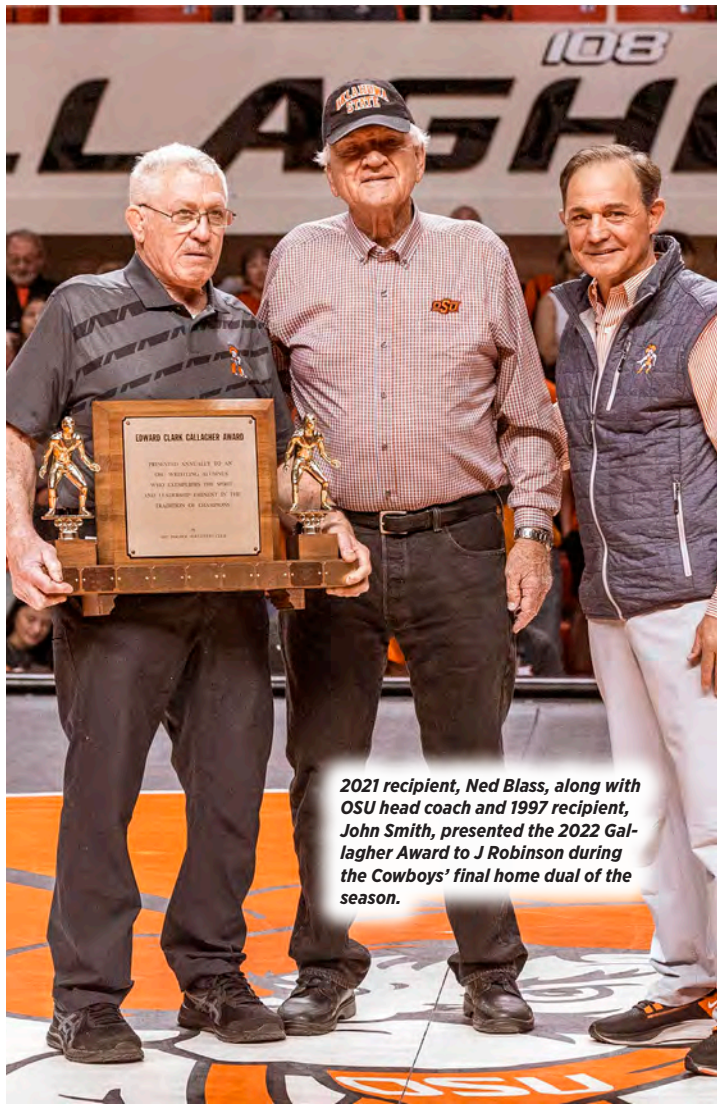
Robinson excelled as a coach for nearly 40 years. He spent nine seasons at Iowa helping lead them to seven NCAA championships from 1976-84, including the '83-84 season when he served as the interim head coach and led the Hawkeyes to Big Ten and NCAA titles.

In 1986 he was named the head coach at Minnesota where he would change the direction of Minnesota wrestling for the next 30 years.

Robinson led the Golden Gophers to three team national titles in 2001, 2002 and 2007. His wrestlers amassed 14 individual national championships and 124 All-America honors under his leadership, including an NCAA-record 10 All-Americans in the 2001 season. His 440 dual wins stands as the fifth most all time with 430 of them coming at Minnesota, which stands as the best mark in program history.

His coaching career also included stints at the national and international level. He served as an assistant coach on four consecutive U.S. Olympic teams in 1976, 1980, 1984 and 1988. He also led the United States at the 1983 Pan American Games as the head coach.

His time at Minnesota ended in 2016 after 30 years of leading the program to new heights. Robinson is a member of the National Member Hall of Fame and was twice named the National Wrestling Coaches Association Coach of the Year.



2021 recipient, Ned Blass, along with OSU head coach and 1997 recipient, John Smith, presented the 2022 Gallagher Award to J Robinson during the Cowboys' final home dual of the season.

OKLAHOMA STATE YEAR-BY-YEAR COACHING HISTORY AND RECORDS

A.M. COLVILLE

1915 // 0-1-0 Record

Coached the First Oklahoma State Wrestling Team

A.M. Colville coached the Oklahoma State wrestling program for its first-ever varsity competition, a 17.5-7 dual match loss to Texas in Stillwater in 1915. It was Colville's only OSU coaching appearance. In that match, OSU 125-pounder Dan F. Cooley scored the first-ever win for a Cowboy wrestler when he pinned his opponent in 55 seconds and rendered his foe unconscious. Colville's inaugural OSU squad consisted of Cooley, Herman Dose, Millard Harnden, R.W. Havenstrite and Jack Briscoe.

COACHING HISTORY

ED GALLAGHER

1916-40 // 136-5-4 Record // 11 NCAA Team Championships
37 NCAA Individual Champions // 69 All-Americans

"The Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling", as he was eulogized by the New York Times upon his untimely death in 1940, Ed Gallagher meant more to the sport than anyone ever has and likely ever will.

Coach of 11 NCAA championship teams and 37 NCAA individual champions during his time at the helm of the Oklahoma State program, he launched the premier dynasty in all of North American sports when he took over the program in 1916. Gallagher, who never wrestled himself, was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods.

In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams and went 136-5-4. At one point, he coached his teams to 69 consecutive victories.

ART GRIFFITH

1941-56 // 78-7-4 Record // 8 NCAA Team Championships
27 NCAA Individual Champions // 64 All-Americans

Facing the unenviable task of succeeding Ed Gallagher at Oklahoma State, Art Griffith took over the program in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles.

When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948.

Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

COACHING HISTORY

MYRON RODERICK

1957-69 // 140-10-7 Record // 7 NCAA Championships
20 NCAA Individual Champions // 79 All-Americans

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 42 of 44 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion.

But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

TOMMY CHESBRO

1970-84 // 227-26-0 Record // 1 NCAA Team Championship
19 NCAA Individual Champions // 76 All-Americans

Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed at Oklahoma State by not one, but three Hall of Fame coaches.
But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors.
From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach.

Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 19 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

COACHING HISTORY

JOE SEAY

1985-91 // 114-18-2 record // 2 NCAA Championships
7 NCAA Individual Champions // 45 All-Americans

A decorated high school and Division II college coach in California prior to taking over as coach at Oklahoma State from 1985 to '92, Joe Seay went 114-8-2 during his time in Stillwater and led the Cowboys to back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles at both the Division I and Division II levels. When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1992, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships.

He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

JOHN SMITH

1992-Pres. // 462-69-6 Record // 5 NCAA Team Championships
33 NCAA Individual Champions // 150 All-Americans

Perhaps the greatest American wrestler ever, John Smith has rightfully earned a legitimate spot in the discussion for best collegiate coach as well.
Since taking over at his alma mater in 1992, Smith has already earned the distinction of being the winningest coach in Oklahoma State wrestling history with 449 dual match wins. Add in his five NCAA team championships in 1994, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006 and the fact that he has coached 33 of his wrestlers to NCAA individual championships and it becomes clear that Smith is one of the best.
The Cowboys have dominated on the conference level under Smith, winning 23 team titles and 129 individual championships.

502-44-6 ALL-TIME RECORD AT GIA

BY THE NUMBERS

25 NCAA team championships won by Oklahoma State since Gallagher-Iba Arena opened in 1939.

91 Percent of duals won by OSU at Gallagher-Iba Arena (502-44-6 record) since the building opened in 1938.

67 Longest home unbeaten streak in Oklahoma State history. The streak lasted from 1933-51.

44 Unbeaten and untied seasons for the Cowboys at Gallagher-Iba Arena since the building opened in 1938.

No venue in America has a richer wrestling tradition than Gallagher-Iba Arena, home of Oklahoma State wrestling since 1939. In its beginning as Gallagher Hall, the gymnasium was named for Edward Clark Gallagher, the Oklahoma A&M wrestling mentor who never wrestled competitively but became the greatest coach of his time.

The 1987-88 season brought a new look and a new name to the hallowed hall. When renovations were completed in January 1988, it was renamed Gallagher-Iba Arena to honor the late Mr. Henry P. Iba, Oklahoma State's legendary basketball coach.

Gallagher-Iba Arena took on a new look once again in 2001. On Jan. 4, 2001 the OSU wrestling team hosted Oregon in the first match in the newly renovated arena. Gallagher-Iba Arena underwent a $56 million renovation, that increased the seating capacity of Gallagher-Iba Arena to its current total of 13,611 seats.

The Cowboys set a new wrestling attendance record in the first season, packing in 10,802 for a Bedlam Series dual against Oklahoma on Feb. 18.The OSU faithful surpassed that mark in 2017 when the Cowboys hosted Penn State for the National Dual finals, which drew an arena record of 14,059.

In 2019, Cowboy duals boasted an average attendance of more than 5,200. Cowboy wrestling sold out Gallagher-Iba again for the end-of-the-year showdown with the Iowa Hawkeyes; more than 13,800 fans were in attendanace for the senior day victory. The attendance marked the second largest in GIA wrestling history and the largest attendance for any collegiate winter sports event in the state of Oklahoma.

Since wrestling began in Gallagher-Iba Arena, the Cowboys have won 25 NCAA titles and have had 44 unbeaten and untied campaigns at home. One of their longest winning streaks ran with the arena's opening in 1939 and lasted until Feb. 16, 1951. During that period, Oklahoma State won 37 straight home duals, including no ties.

From the final dual of 1959 through the first five home duals of the 1967 season, Oklahoma State wrestled 67 duals without a loss, finishing with an impressive 60-0-1 record before the streak was broken by Oklahoma, 19-13.

On Feb. 3, 1939, Oklahoma A&M wrestled for the first time inside the arena, defeating Indiana by an 18-6 margin. On Feb. 3, 1989, the Oklahoma State Cowboys hosted the Hoosiers in a celebration of the 50-year anniversary of the first Gallagher Hall dual. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers, 28-6, in the 1989 dual.

OSU's home winning streak of 50 consecutive duals was the second-longest such streak without a loss or tie, as it began near the end of the 1986 season and lasted until Jan. 30, 1993.

The Cowboys claimed the 500th dual win in Gallagher-Iba Arena on Feb. 4, 2022 in a 29-6 victory over South Dakota State. The win also began a new home winning streak to close out the season as the most recent 26-match winning streak at home, dating back to Jan. 27, 2018, was broken on Jan. 29 as Northern Iowa defeated OSU, 19-15.

THE UNIVERSITY

Oklahoma State University

A land-grant institution with more than 35,000 students across a five-campus system, we've graduated more than 264,000 students to serve the state of Oklahoma, the nation and the world.

Building on its land-grant heritage, Oklahoma State University promotes learning, advances knowledge, enriches lives, and stimulates economic development through teaching, research, extension, outreach and creative activities.

Oklahoma State University is a modern land-grant university that prepares students for success. Through leadership and service, OSU improves the lives of people in Oklahoma, the nation and the world. Built on the value of high-quality teaching, research and outreach, OSU gives students the resources and education they need to make a difference in the world.

Three Pillars

Instruction
OSU provides the highest quality education in a variety of different majors using the latest teaching methods.

Research
OSU is creating the next generation of scientists, thinkers and scholars through its tradition of research excellence.

Extension
OSU's Cooperative Extension connects people across the nation and world with the latest research and practical solutions.

Core Values

Community
Foster a strong sense of community based on shared governance among student, faculty, staff and administration.

Diversity
Respect and value the diversity of individuals, beliefs and opinions.

Service
Serving others is a noble and worthy endeavor and distinguishing feature of a land-grant institution.

Steward of Resources
Dedicated to the efficient and effective use of resources and sustainability.

Excellence
Seek excellence in all endeavors and commitment to continuous improvement.

Integrity
Commitment to the principles of truth and honesty.

Intellectual Freedom
Believe in ethical and scholarly questioning that respects the rights of all to freely pursue knowledge.

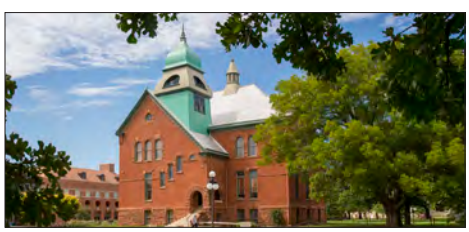
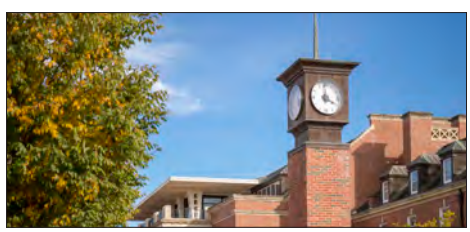
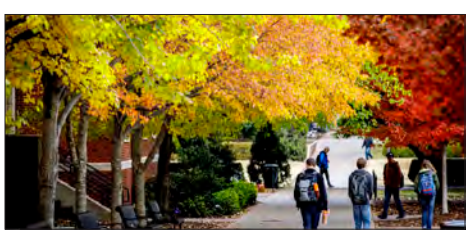
Hailing from all 50 states and 100 countries, we are united by the Cowboy Code.

- We end the day knowing we gave it everything we had.
- We dream only as big as the sky.
- We know challenges come with pain, but pain will not win.
- We have a passion to do what's right, even when it's hard.
- We stand for what matters, even if we stand alone.
- We finish what we start.
- Being a Cowboy isn't in our clothes, it's in our character.

- Inspired by James P. Owen's 2004 book "Cowboy Ethics: What Wall Street Can Learn from The Code of the West."







Oklahoma State University, in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid, and educational services. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information. The Director of Equal Opportunity, 408 Whitehurst, OSU, Stillwater, OK 74078-1035; Phone 405-744-5371; email: eeo@okstate.edu has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity. Any person (student, faculty, or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based on gender may discuss his or her concerns and file informal or formal complaints of possible violations of Title IX with OSU's Title IX Coordinator 405-744-9154." See http://eeo.okstate.edu/title-ix for more information.

University President Dr. Kayse Shrum

Dr. Kayse Shrum

University President
Second Year | OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine

On April 2, 2021, the OSU/A&M Board of Regents selected Dr. Kayse Shrum as the 19th president of Oklahoma State University. A native Oklahoman, President Shrum earned her doctor of osteopathic medicine degree from the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and has completed executive leadership and management training programs at Harvard University and Stanford University.

In addition to navigating the realignment of the Big 12 conference in her first few months, Dr. Shrum also launched the system-wide strategy process to guide the future of the university. The goal is for OSU to become the nation's premier land-grant university, creating and discovering solutions to societal problems, providing students with a world-class education and sending them into the world after graduation well-equipped to handle the challenges before them. The strategy is expected to be presented to the Oklahoma A&M Board of Regents in fall 2022.

During her first year as president of the Oklahoma State University system, Dr. Shrum initiated the development of an OSU energy institute. The Harold Hamm Foundation and Continental Resources contributed a combined $50 million gift creating the Hamm Institute for American Energy at Oklahoma State University. The Hamm Institute's mission is to educate the next generation of energy leaders — in Oklahoma, the United States and from around the world — cementing Oklahoma's legacy as a global energy leader.

Dr. Shrum also celebrated the launch of the new Oklahoma Aerospace Institute for Research and Education (OAIRE), which brings together OSU's historic strength in aerospace engineering, flight training and aeronautics. This university-level institute brings the state's aerospace innovation economy together under one umbrella. OAIRE will support ongoing and future partnerships between university, commercial, military and government agencies, becoming a valuable resource for developing Oklahoma's aerospace ecosystem. That includes generating high-tech jobs and cutting-edge research that brings commercial enterprise and military sustainment support to the state.

Before being named president of the OSU system, Dr. Shrum was named president of OSU Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS) in 2013, becoming the youngest and first female president and dean of a medical school in the state of Oklahoma. Dr. Shrum holds the George Kaiser Family Foundation Chair in Medical Excellence and Service and the Saint Francis Health System Endowed Chair of Pediatrics.

Under her leadership, OSU-CHS experienced unprecedented growth. Student enrollment more than doubled as new academic programs were established to meet the health care workforce needs of Oklahoma. She also led the construction of the A.R. and Marylouise Tandy Medical Academic Building, a state-of-the-art learning facility that houses Oklahoma's largest and most technologically advanced hospital simulation center.

A strong supporter of collaborative partnerships, Dr. Shrum worked with Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Bill John Baker and his administration to establish the nation's first tribally affiliated medical school, the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine at the Cherokee Nation, which opened in fall 2020. She also helped secure a landmark investment from Purdue Pharma in the amount of $197.5 million to create a center of excellence in addiction treatment and studies to address the opioid addiction epidemic — the National Center for Wellness and Recovery.

Dr. Shrum launched award-winning high school recruiting programs like Operation Orange and Blue Coat to White Coat, established the Rural Medical Track curriculum and expanded the number of residency training programs in rural Oklahoma by securing support from the Oklahoma Legislature, Oklahoma Health Care Authority and Oklahoma Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust.

Dr. Shrum's leadership, professional and civic contributions have led to notable recognition and rewards. Her honors include:

- 2022 Oklahoma Women's Hall of Fame induction
- 2022 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association DO of the Decade
- 2020 Journal Record Health Care Hero
- 2020 Osteopathic Founders Foundation Outstanding Physician Award
- 2020 Becker's Hospital Review "100 Academic Medical Center CEOs to Know"
- 2019 Connors State College Alumni Hall of Fame induction
- 2019 Tulsa Osteopathic Medical Society Osteopathic Impact Award
- 2019 Journal Record's 2019 Woman of Year Award
- 2018 Newsmaker Award by the Association for Women in Communications Tulsa Chapter
- 2014 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association's Outstanding & Distinguished Service Award
- 2013 Connors State College Athletics Hall of Fame induction
- 2012 Tulsa Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women's Pinnacle Award for Health

Athletics Director
Second Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years serving as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director. In this role, Weiberg serves on President Kayse Shrum's leadership team that helps to advance Oklahoma State's land grant mission and President Shrum's strategic initiatives for the institution.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in the national intercollegiate athletics landscape. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness in college sports both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date. Later in his first year came the NCAA Constitutional Convention and subsequent Transformation Committee plus further realignment on the national level. Those foundational changes brought urgent new action items to his list of responsibilities to position OSU for continued success in an entirely new landscape.

Weiberg responded with a series of investments to best position OSU Athletics and Cowboy Football to continue to compete for championships in the rapidly changing environment. In addition to contract and compensation adjustments for head coach Mike Gundy and his staff, OSU launched a complete remodel of the football locker room, added a heating system in the Sherman Smith Training Center, new field turf for Boone Pickens Stadium and the practice field and announced $40 million worth of improvements to the fan experience in Boone Pickens Stadium over the next few years. Those investments came during a 2021-22 school year that saw the Cowboy football program finish first in the Big 12 standings and secure wins over Oklahoma and Texas plus a Fiesta Bowl victory over Notre Dame.

Under Weiberg, OSU's response to the dynamic shifts in the NCAA landscape included creating an NIL program that established partnerships with leaders in the new space, including the innovative Brand Squad that pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.

OSU was the only Big 12 school recognized as a national finalist for Best Institutional Program at the inaugural NIL Awards at the INFLCR NIL Summit in 2022. Additionally, OSU created the POSSE STAR Fund to provide student-athletes financial rewards for achieving academic success in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling on Alston vs. NCAA.

The first women's team national championship in Oklahoma State history was won in Weiberg's first year as athletic director when the Cowgirl equestrian team won the 2022 NCEA overall championship. Weiberg subsequently signed head coach Larry Sanchez to a new contract, as well as contract extensions for softball coach Kenny Gajewski after he led the Cowgirls to the 2022 Women's College World Series and women's tennis coach Chris Young after he led the Cowgirls to the 2022 NCAA Sweet 16.

Also in his first year, Weiberg hired Jacie Hoyt as the new head coach for Cowgirl Basketball. Another notable investment in Weiberg's first year was the construction of a state-of-the-art locker room for the Cowboy wrestling program. He has initiated the planning process for future facility improvements for OSU Athletics as well.

As OSU's Deputy Athletic Director, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefitted student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes. In 2020, Weiberg played a role in launching - and continues to serve as a member of - the Oklahoma State Athletics Council for Diversity and Inclusion.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a bachelor of business administration degree. He earned a master's in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a large role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as commissioner of the Big 12.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

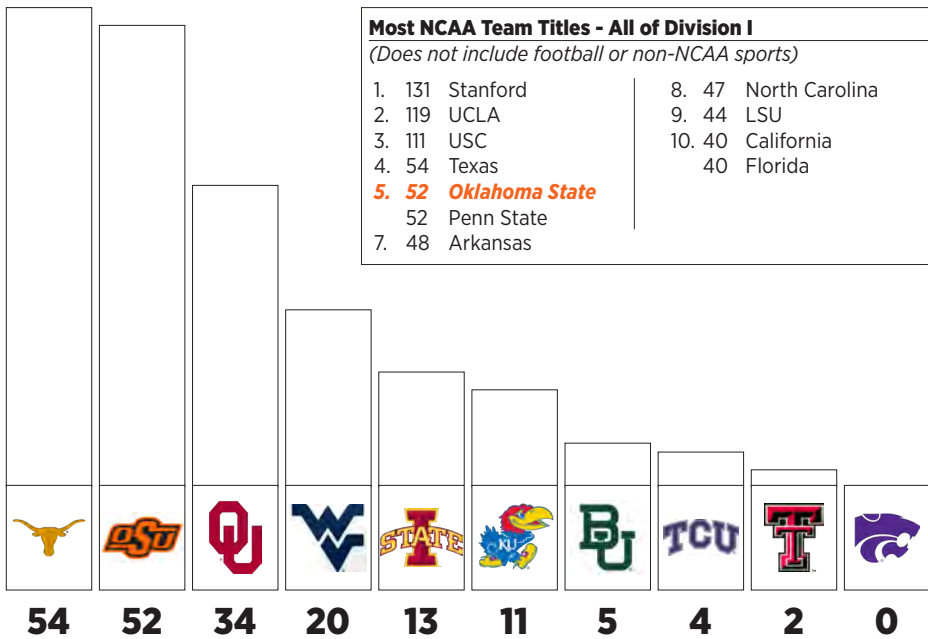
NCAA Team Championships

Oklahoma State is second in the Big 12 and fifth nationally with 52 NCAA team titles.



Most NCAA Team Titles - All of Division I

(Does not include football or non-NCAA sports)

1.	131	Stanford
2.	119	UCLA
3.	111	USC

	52	Penn State
7.	48	Arkansas
8.	47	North Carolina
9.	44	LSU
10.	40	California
	40	Florida

Very few athletic departments produce the kind of consistent success found at Oklahoma State. OSU has won 52 NCAA team championships - a mark that ranks fifth among all Division I schools.

OSU boasts NCAA team championships in five different sports – wrestling (34 titles), men's golf (11 titles), men's cross country (four titles), men's basketball (two titles) and baseball (one title). Additionally, OSU football and equestrian have been recognized as national champions by other organizations.

That same success translates on the conference level, where Oklahoma State has amassed 326 team conference championships entering the 2022-23 academic year. A team-by-team look at OSU Athletics:

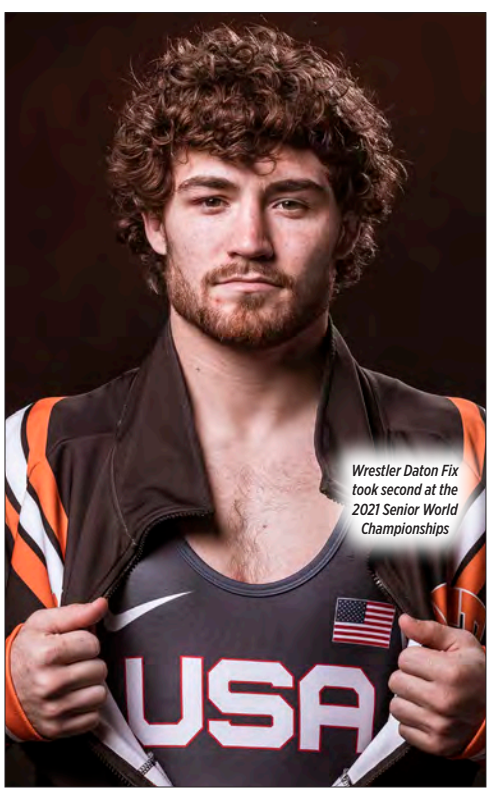
Next Generation Stars

Oklahoma State has a proven track record of developing superstars at the next level. That continues today as OSU is home to some of the brightest up-and-coming talents in sports.

Taylor Roe won the 2022 NCAA indoor 3,000 meter title in addition to securing All-America status in cross country and outdoor track and field.



Wrestler Daton Fix took second at the 2021 Senior World Championships

Big 12 champion and NCAA 10,000 meter runner-up Alex Maier

Softball pitcher Kelly Maxwell is a member of the U.S. National Team

Phillips 66 Bedlam Series

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head to head competition. In sports where there is no head to head matchup, the Big 12 Championship final standings are used.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year. The annual Bedlam Series is tied at 11 wins apiece. OU controlled the early years of the Bedlam Series, but with Bedlam victories in eight of the last nine years, OSU has since become the superior school in direct competition.

The Big 12 Conference

The Big 12 enters its 27th year as one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of new commissioner Brett Yormark.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012 and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech. Beginning on July 1, 2023, BYU, UCF, Cincinnati and Houston will become members.

The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 26 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 77 NCAA team titles and 718 individual national championships.

The Big 12 has been at the forefront in college athletics reform, specifically with student-athlete welfare issues to include cost of attendance, student-athlete time demands and strengthening its policy for concussion diagnosis and management. In 2014-15, the Big 12 introduced and hosted three "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums to examine the issues facing college athletics. Two were conducted in Washington, D.C. and one in New York City. Panelists included respected authorities from intercollegiate athletics, university leadership and sports journalism. The third forum featured a special session comprised of student-athletes. The Big 12 continued the "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums with Dallas serving as the host site for three events and one staged in Atlanta.

The award-winning Big 12 Champions for Life, an initiative of the Conference, begins its eighth year in 2022-23. It features current and former student-athletes, selected by league institutions, in a series of public service announcements highlighting the positive impact an athletics scholarship has had on their lives leading to stories of personal growth and success.

During the 2021-22 athletics season, an all-time high eight national titles were won by teams that compete under the Big 12 banner. Additionally, six teams finished as runners-up in their respective national championships while 15 student-athletes brought home individual titles. Kansas won the Conference's second-consecutive and third overall men's basketball crown. Baylor was the 2021 champion while Kansas also won in 2008. Oklahoma collected its and the league's fifth gymnastics national championship. Texas brought home the Big 12's first NCAA title in men's indoor track & field while Oklahoma State earned the league's second trophy in Equestrian. Four titles were added to the ledger in the spring season with Texas capturing its second-consecutive championships in women's tennis and rowing. The Longhorns also won the Big 12's seventh men's golf crown. Oklahoma snagged its second straight and sixth overall softball national title.

The Big 12 has the best bowl win percentage of any conference over the last two seasons (.833). The Conference placed 70 percent of teams in 2021 bowl games for the first time since 2018, and had seven bowl squads for the 18th season out of the last 23. Baylor and Oklahoma State played in and won CFP New Year's Six Bowls to give the Big 12 two teams in the postseason structure for the sixth time in its eight years. From 2017-19, Oklahoma made three straight CFP semifinal appearances and has made four since 2015.

The Conference has claimed seven Heisman winners, including former OU signal callers Kyler Murray in 2018 and Baker Mayfield in 2017. The Big 12 has had a finalist in 16 of its 26 seasons for a total of 21 with two finalists in five seasons.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) was the recipient of the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. He is the Big 12's fifth honoree since 2000. Alison Gibson (Texas) was presented the NCAA Today's Top 10 Award in January 2021. It recognizes former student-athletes for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. Since 1996, the Big 12 has a total of 14 honorees for this prestigious award. In the last 12 seasons, 25 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 Award with Emma LaPinta (Oklahoma gymnastics) and Jules Callaham (Oklahoma State softball) earning their second straight honor in 2022. Additionally, OSU's Ryan Schoppe was rewarded for Men's Indoor Track in 2022. The accolade showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short history, the Big 12 has over 780 Academic All-America recipients, averaging over 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. On 24 occasions a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport, including Bianca St. Georges (West Virginia) for soccer in 2018-19, Brittany Brewer (Texas Tech) for women's basketball in 2019-20 and Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) for football in 2021-22.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsmanship awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 481 scholars have received over $3.7 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 25 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 38 million people. Nearly 5,000 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 22 of its 23 sports with the Football Championship Game returning in 2017 after a six-year absence. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition.

The Conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

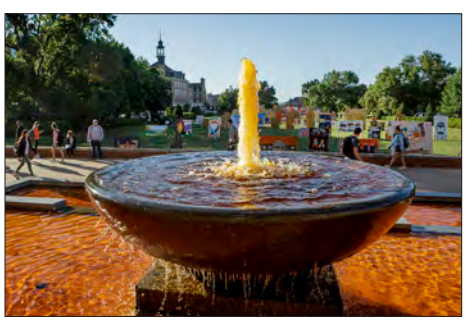
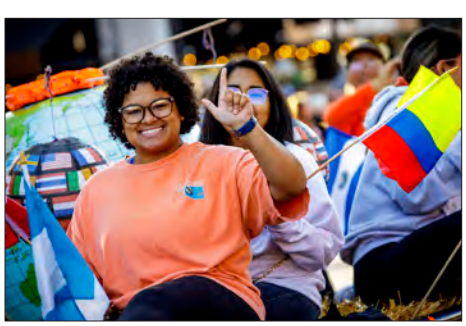
America's Greatest Homecoming





Ask any Oklahoma State University graduate what OSU's greatest tradition is, and you'll hear one word - Homecoming.

The OSU Alumni Association has presented Homecoming at OSU since 1920, growing it from a small-town carnival to a nine-day, award-winning celebration. It is widely known as America's Greatest Homecoming with its signature event, Walkaround, which regularly draws more than 80,000 spectators to view elaborate Greek house decorations and residence halls bathed in orange.

OSU's Homecoming is entirely run by students - more than 250 on committees within the Alumni Association and thousands more in Greek, residential and campus life. Cowboys love our Homecoming tradition and are actively contributing to an endowment to secure its future existence and growth on our campus.

Homecoming is a driving force in the Stillwater community. The Harvest Carnival event contributes approximately one quarter of the yearly canned food donations to the local Harvest II food drive. Homecoming also highlights other OSU sports at Homecoming & Hoops where fans can preview the upcoming season's squads for Cowboy and Cowgirl basketball in addition to enjoying a pep rally for Saturday's football game.

From the Edmon Low Library's orange fountain to Hester Street painted for coaches and players to view during "The Walk," OSU and its alumni are proud to claim America's Greatest Homecoming. Homecoming 2022: 'Hats Off to Cowboy Heroes' is October 14-22 and will conclude with the Texas vs. OSU football game on Saturday, October 22.

Oklahoma State Spirit

The Cowboy Trail

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

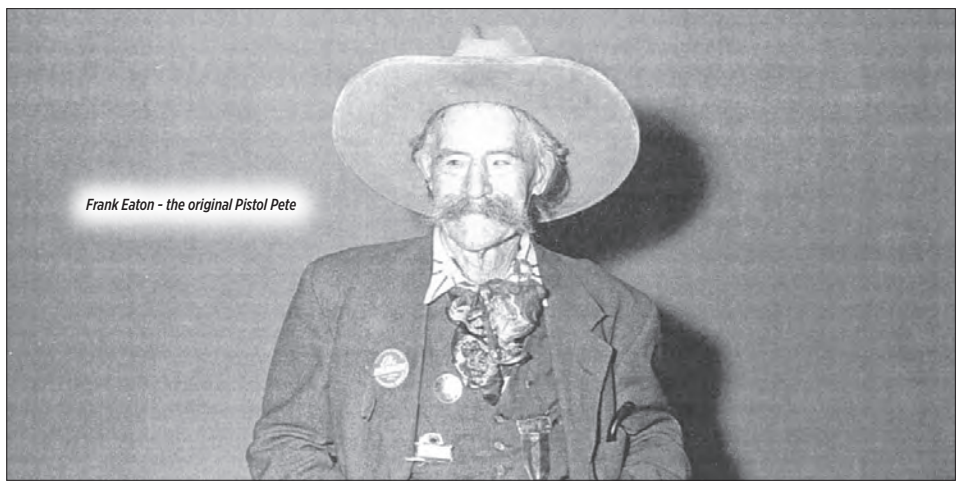
Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.



Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

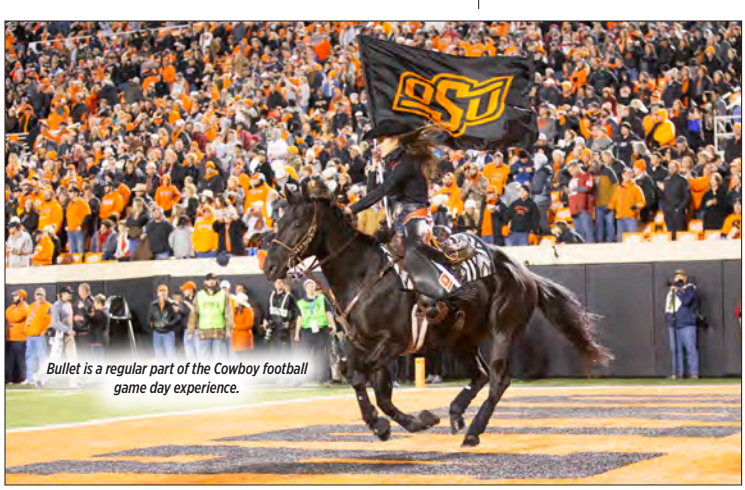
When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.



Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.

THE PROGRAM

There is no greater dynasty in all of sports than Oklahoma State Cowboy wrestling.

What makes Oklahoma State a dynasty? It's a combination of the themes that have been in the Oklahoma State wrestling program for over a century that the tradition and success was built upon. These themes are why Cowboy wrestling is a dynasty defined.

A Dynasty Defined

Innovation

Oklahoma State wrestling began with the "Father of Oklahoma Wrestling" Ed Gallagher. The foundation laid by Coach Gallagher has stood strong for over 100 years, and is one of the pioneers of the sport as we know it today.

Lineage

The coaching tree of Oklahoma State and its success. A total of 34 national titles with five head coaches proceeding Coach Gallagher. Art Giffith, Myron Roderick, Tommy Chesbro, Joe Seay, and John Smith. Each of OSU's head coaches is a member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Culture/Diversity

OSU minority athletes have had immense success in the sport of wrestling. Kenny Monday was the first black Olympic champion, while Joe James was the first black Big 8 conference champion and Jimmy Jackson was a three-time NCAA champ. Yojiro Uetake went 57-0 at Oklahoma State and later became a two-time gold medalist representing Japan. In 1965, Jack Brisco became the first Native American to win an NCAA championship.

Family

The ties to grandsons, sons, and siblings are never ending in Stillwater. The Smith family is obvious, but families like the Sheets, Perrys and Kellers have shared the pride of Oklahoma State wrestling through generations.

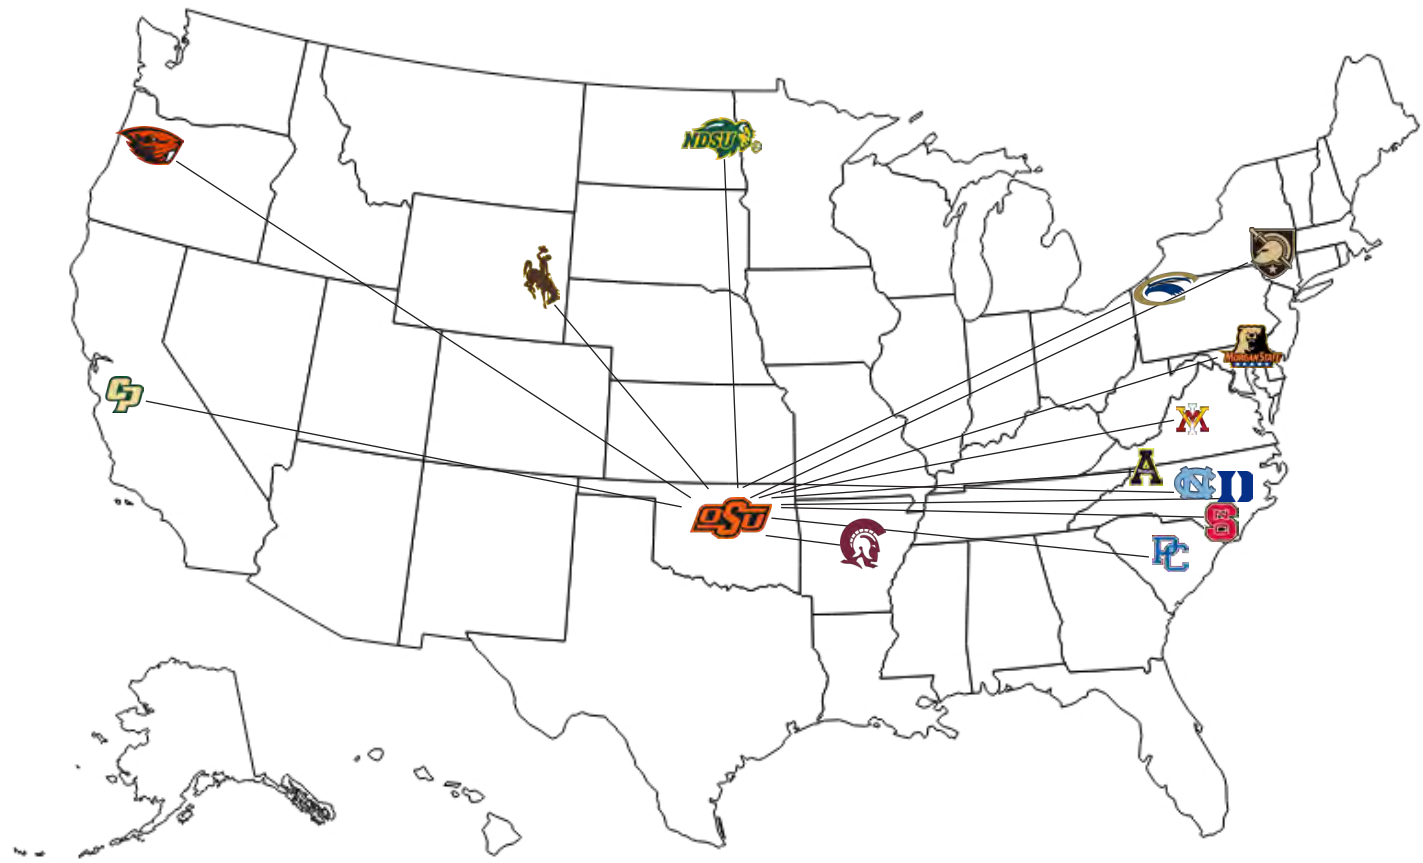
Resilience

The 100 years of success wasn't the smoothest road, and it never is; it took grit to carry the tradition of Cowboy wrestling. David Arndt is the only wrestler to win NCAA championships before and after World War II. The 1994 NCAA championship team came off a year of probation to triumph as team champs.

Performance

The winningest team in all of sports is ultimately what defines the dynasty. No team in any sport has more championships than the 34 boasted by Cowboy Wrestling, along with 483 All-Americans and 143 individual champions. The same level of success is present on the world stage as nine Cowboy wrestlers have won a total of 11 gold medals at the Olympic Games.

The Smith Tree



The legacy John Smith has created in college wrestling extends far beyond Stillwater, Oklahoma. The Cowboy head coach has built a coaching tree that extends from coast-to-coast with 10 of his former wrestlers or assistants having taken the reigns at their own program, and numerous others in assistant roles.

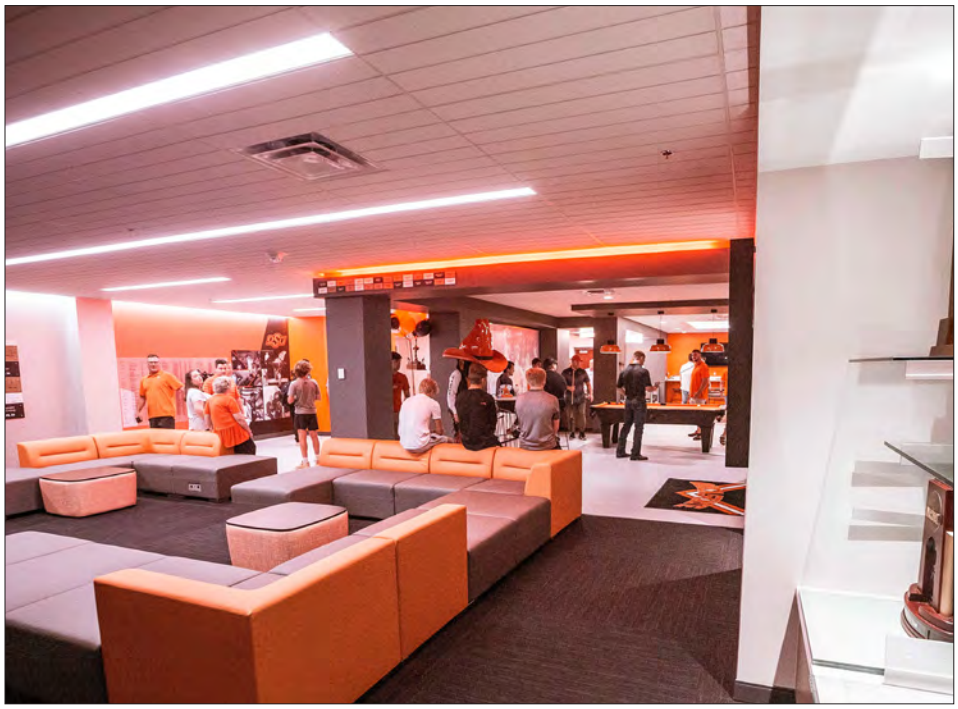
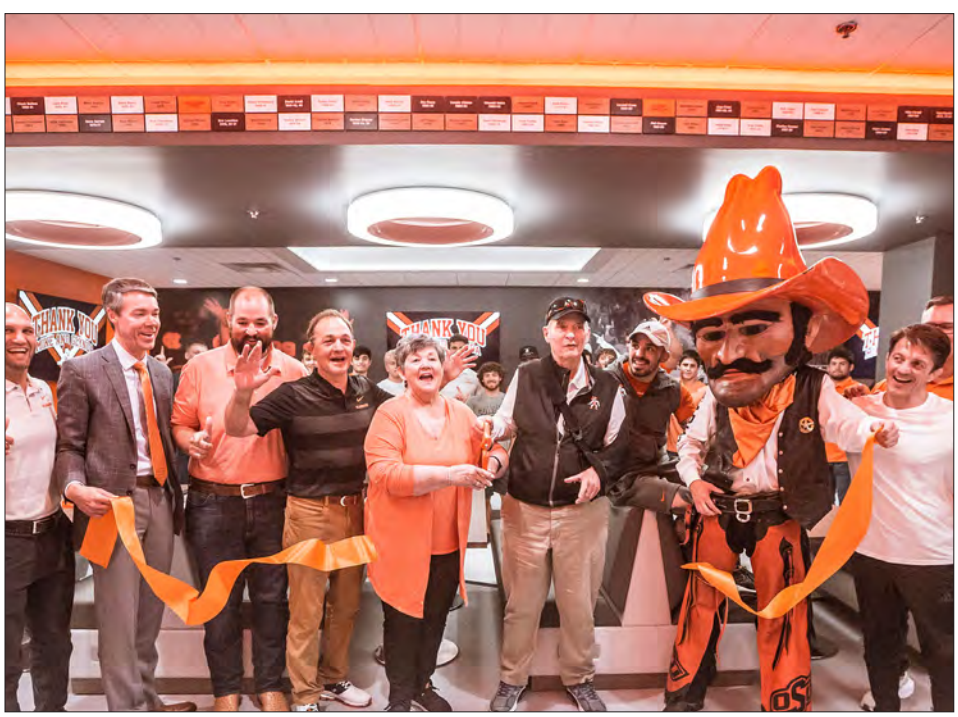
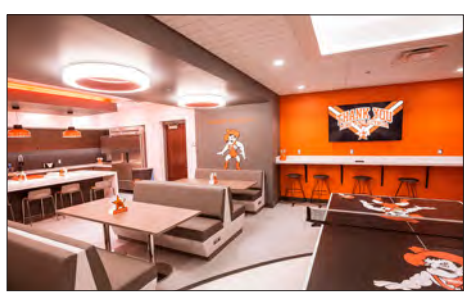
New Facilities

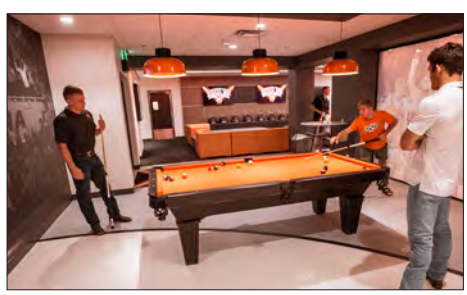


The new state-of-the-art locker room consists of a lounge area and dining room, decorated to tribute the past and current tradition of Oklahoma State wrestling.



Joined by Mike and Glynda Pollard, who donated $1 million for the facility, OSU unveiled the completed locker room on May 31, 2022.





Singlets and Gear

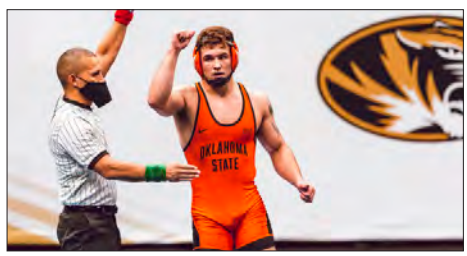
The traditional orange Oklahoma State singlet and the chevron warmup jacket are some of the most iconic looks in all of college wrestling. In 2021, the Cowboys broke out a new wave of secondary singlets to complement their traditional style.

The Cowboys have worn the all-orange singlet for more than 40 years.

The chevron warmups are a staple of the Oklahoma State wrestling tradition.

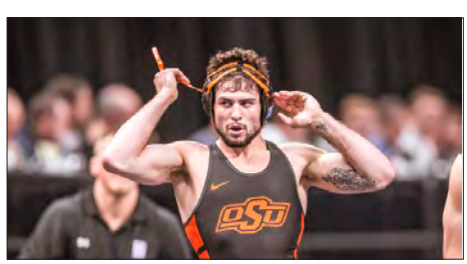
New Looks

The "Cursive Cowboys" appeared for the first time on a singlet in 2021.



A new look for the Cowboys as a whole, a block font was introduced onto the singlet in 2021. An orange front is paired with black accents and OSU's official logo.

A white block font with white accents is added to an orange singlet with a Pistol Pete logo on the back.



The black singlet with the OSU brand front and center was debuted for the Cowboys on the first day of the 2022 NCAA Championships.
